REDUCE CHURCH DEBT BY $7,000

First Baptists Learn at Close of Day Devoted to Dedication They Owe Only $1,300

REFLECT SPIRIT OF THE DAY

Services Sunday Have to do With Opening of New House of Worship—Big Crowd in Afternoon

When the congregation of the First Baptist church entered upon the day during which their new house of worship was to be dedicated, yesterday morning, the debt on the building, which cost over $12,000, was $8,282. Last night when the final service closed, the debt had been reduced to about $1,300. In other words, close to $7,000 was raised yesterday.

Members of the congregation feel very well satisfied with the day's work, which culminates the months of sacrifice and hard work which they have undergone to make possible the beautiful structure, which yesterday received the praise of admiring hundreds who attended the various services.

Every service Sunday reflected the spirit of the day, but the dedicatory service proper was held in the afternoon at two o'clock when the Rev. Carlos Dinsmore, superintendent of missions for the Indiana Baptist convention, delivered the principal address and short congratulatory talks were made by the pastors of the other four churches. The Rev. Mr. Dinsmore spoke in the morning and the Rev. C. B. Jones of Greensburg at night. More than 300 sat down to the basket dinner in the basement of the church at noon.

The seating capacity of the new church was tested at the afternoon meeting when every available seat was taken and many were compelled to stand. The Rev. Mr. Dinsmore preached a missionary sermon, showing the vastness of the missionary enterprise.

"I want to express my fine appreciation of the feeling that exists between the churches here," he said at the outset, after the other ministers had spoken. "If there is anything that makes my heart heavy and sick, it is to go into a town and find the preachers working against each other and planning their work apart from each other."

"I wish we could all catch some of the enthusiasm which has actuated this congregation in building this magnificent church home," was the thought Dr. D. Ira Lambert of the First Presbyterian church expressed.

He spoke of the value of the church to the community "Blot out the church for six months and see what would happen," he added. "Blot out the church in Indiana for six months and see what would happen. Would that everyone in Rushville could realize that the church of Christ is worth sacrificing for."

"From my heart," he said in closing, "not simply as something for the occasion—I bring you my heartfelt congratulations."

"I bring you the greetings from the Methodist Episcopal denomination and also the local church which I represent," said the Rev. W. M. Whitsitt.

"I think I express the feeling of the Christian people of Rushville when I say that it is easy to rejoice with this people in the completion of this beautiful church. It is beneficial to our city in an architectural way and in many other ways. I have watched the progress of this church. I have seen the pastor on the roof of the old church when it was being torn down. I saw him in the basement when they struck water and I marvel at the fact when I think that this was once the site of a Presbyterian church. I hope that this is just the beginning and that we will

PETTY ROBBERIES ON SUNDAY NIGHT

Two Automobiles are Tampered With and Most of Load of Wood is Stolen from Emory Schmidt.

BOYS HELD RESPONSIBLE

A number of petty robberies last night were reported today. The work for the most part is believed to have been done by local talent. The coal shed of Emory Schmidt of East Eighth street was broken into last night and practically all of his wood taken. He had just purchased a load of wood and over half of it was gone this morning.

The automobile of Will O. Feulner, while standing in front of the residence of Norma Norris in North Main street last night, was raffled and several articles of value taken. The side pockets of the car were searched and everything carried off. A number of small tools were taken. The work is believed to have been done by a gang of boys.

The machine of Wood Bishop, standing in front of the residence of Josiah Bishop, two houses south of the Norris home, was also tampered with but nothing of value was found missing.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS ARE WANTED HERE

William Sexton and Duane Reed Said to Have Left for Detroit After Passing Bad Checks

ALLEGED WATCH THEFT, TOO

William Sexton and Duane Reed, high school students are wanted here for passing several fraudulent checks last Saturday night. The two boys are said to have left immediately for Indianapolis after securing the money on the checks. They issued the checks, drawn on their own accounts, without funds in the bank.

Young Sexton obtained $5 from the Greek Candy kitchen and Reed obtained $5 from A. W. Wilkinson. How many other checks they cashed is not known. The theft of a watch is also involved, according to the police. One watch was recovered Saturday evening and "Red" Sumpter reported to the police that his watch had been taken by Sexton in Indianapolis Saturday night.

The check issued by Sexton on the Greeks was drawn on the Rush County National bank and the Wilkinson check issued by Reed was on the Peoples National bank.

HOPE FOR WOMANS VOTES BILL FADES

Chairman of House Committee Having Measure Says it Will Likely Not be Reported

FAITH PINNED ON SENATE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—Hope of Indiana suffragists to obtain the vote through the present legislature faded today when Dick M. Vesey, Fort Wayne, chairman of the house judiciary B committee to which the Alldredge suffrage bill was referred announced, that the bill would probably die in the committee.

Vesey stated that no report would be made on the measure unless it is demanded by the house. A majority and minority report will be made then, the majority against and the minority report for the bill.

A similar bill is under consideration by a senate committee and suffragists are now placing their hopes on the upper house.

SOME WEDDINGS ARE A SACRILEGE

Dr. J. A. McCuaig, in Final Address, Pleads More Consideration be Given Fitness for Marriage

CHRISTIAN CHURCH PACKED

New York Lecturer Closes Week's Work Here With Five Addresses on Sunday

Dr. J. Aspinall McCuaig of New York, who has been attracting large audiences afternoon and evening of the past week by his lectures on Eugenics and kindred subjects, brought to a close his work in Rushville yesterday.

At 6:00 p. m. in the First Presbyterian church he addressed a mass meeting of young people on the subject of "Ever Learning," emphasizing the tendency of all classes of people to learn and learn and learn; but never come to a knowledge of the truth.

At St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church at 7:00 o'clock Dr. McCuaig spoke to a large congregation on "How to Love." In the morning he also preached the sermon. He spoke to the Century Class at the Christian Sunday school.

The final meeting of the day was held in the Main Street Christian church at 8:30 o'clock. The church was crowded with people who came to bid farewell to Dr. McCuaig. At the close of the service he was the center of an informal reception. At the conclusion of the address Dr. Miller sang a beautiful tenor solo which, added to Dr. McCuaig's plea for a God-formed marriage, impressed the audience deeply.

Dr. McCuaig's final address to a Rushville audience was on the topic, "Mistakes About Marriage." In his talk, he said:

"The great ambition of thousands of young women in every community today is to find a husband and often to this end every deception of act and figure and even character, is practiced with impunity. Flippant speech and artificiality are not infrequently substituted for sincerity, with the result that bitter disappointment often follows marriage."

He made a strong plea that men and women consider more seriously their fitness for marriage and prepare for the solemn tie that will bind them through life.

Dr. McCuaig declared that there is a physical, mental and spiritual affinity, which is divine, and which constitutes the true marriage.

He did not hold guiltless either the mothers who are so anxious to secure for their daughters husbands that they ignore conditions which have a distinct bearing on the relationship, or the church, which so glorifies the ceremony that the paths which lead to it are often ignored.

Doctor McCuaig asserted that some marriages are the most audacious sacrilege, and he suggested that saner education is needed rather than more stringent laws. Under present conditions untalented boys and girls stumble upon marriages and make the most appalling mistakes.

The idea of one man for one woman and vice versa was strongly advanced by Doctor McCuaig as the correct one. He admitted that the Old Testament record of many wives for men was an impediment, in the thought of some persons, but declared that a comprehensive study of the Scripture would reveal the fact that there was in each such case one woman, and one woman only, who was in a true sense the answer to, and the completion of the men. He cited as an example of this the case of Jacob and Rachel and Isaac and Rebecca.

He urged that the high and beneficent purpose of marriage be taught to the young so that it may be entered into with reverence and discretion.

TO TAKE FINAL ACTION MONDAY

County Fair Board Will Decide on Course and Submit Action to Stockholders for Approval

INDEBTEDNESS ABOUT $5,600

Some Members of Board Favor Selling Everything Separately—Little Favorable Sentiment

The directors of the Rush County Fair association will meet next Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the assembly room of the court house for the purpose of taking final action on the disposition of the fair grounds. Since the county council refused to appropriate $1,500 for the use of the fair, the board of directors are determined to sell the grounds and close up the business of the fair.

The board will take official action next Monday and then a meeting of the stockholders will be held and the matter put up to them for final action. There seems to be very little sentiment in favor of a fair. The present board of directors has declared it would not put the fair any deeper in debt and since the appropriation was not made the board believes it cannot operate only at a loss. The present indebtedness of the fair is about $5,600.

There is some question as to how the grounds will be sold. Some of the board members favor selling everything separately. For instance all of the timber would be sold to the highest bidder, then the buildings and then the grounds. The fair grounds consist of about 27 acres. The buildings would be of little use to anyone wanting the grounds for farming purposes, except the barns, and there is only one good barn.

The debt of the fair was $3,500 when the present board came into control. This debt has been increased, not because of mismanagement but because of circumstances and the members are determined to sell the grounds rather than increase the indebtedness. Last year the fair tried to buck the Connersville fair and as a result lost money. Other losses were occasioned because of the weather. The year before the fair was held on Saturday and proved a great money loser.

The directors are determined to give up the fair and will probably vote accordingly. It will then be up to the stockholders. There were few expressions of sympathy Saturday following the refusal of the council to appropriate money and it is believed a rest of a few years may prove a good thing.

PARK FACTORY RUNS AGAIN

Innis-Pearce Plant Will Resume Operations Once More Tomorrow

The Park Furniture company resumed work today and the Innis-Pearce company will resume operations tomorrow after having been closed down for several days on account of a shortage of coal. It was stated at the Park that plenty of coal had been received to cause the belief that there was no danger of another shut-down very soon. Neither plant was able to get coal.

FIRE LOSS $500,000

Boston, Mass., Jan. 29.—Fire which broke out in the center of the wholesale district early today caused a loss of $500,000. The building occupied by the Thomas Kelly company, largest woolen blanket dealers in New England, was destroyed.

A number of claims have been filed against the estate of Theodore E. Gregg. The Knecht Clothing company has a claim for $15.50; O. C. Norris two claims, one for $70.50 and the other for $98 and Sue M. Gregg, one for $67.78.

LOT SALE SCHEME IS ADVANCED AGAIN

This Method For Putting Across Concern Which Wants to Locate Here Will be Considered

MEETING TO BE HELD SOON

A factory proposition that looks good to those men who have been boosting for a new manufacturing institution here has been located and a representative will be in Rushville within a few days, it was announced today. At that time those who have promised the boosters they will do their share and others who are vitally interested will be present.

Since it will take money to float the concern that is considering locating here, the lot sale scheme has again been put forward as the means of raising the necessary money. The plan, as advanced once before, is simply this: that owners of vacant lots in Rushville shall give their lots in return for stock in the new concern and the lots shall then be sold and the money thus realized to pay for the stock which the owners of the lots are given.

That matters are now taking such a course that something definite will happen within a few days is apparent. The lot sale method will be considered at the forthcoming meeting.

ENDORSES WRIGHT STATE-WIDE BILL

Mass Meeting at Christian Church Adopts Resolution Urging Support of Prohibition Measure

MESSAGE TO DOBYNS TODAY

A telegram was sent to Senator Lem P. Dobyms of Greensburg today urging him to vote for the Wright state-wide prohibition bill which was handed down for the first reading in the senate today. The bill passed the house last Thursday, 70 to 28. The telegram told the senator representing Rush, Hancock and Decatur counties of the endorsement of the state-wide measure at a mass meeting of more than one thousand persons of Rushville and vicinity last night.

When the church congregations had gathered at the Main Street Christian church last night at 8:30 to hear Dr. J. A. McCuaig, the Rev. C. M. Yocum explained that Rush county was regarded throughout the state as being a laggard with respect to the temperance sentiment that is sweeping the state. Only two petitions, containing 168 signatures, have been sent from this county.

Dr. C. H. Parsons then read a resolution endorsing the Wright bill and the meeting made it unanimous by all standing to show their approval of the endorsement. After the vote was taken, Dr. Parsons read the telegram which was this morning sent to Senator Dobyms. It was also urged that individual messages be sent.

CANDIDATE FOR TREASURER

George Helm Announces he Will Seek Republican Nomination

George Helm announced today that he was a candidate for the republican nomination for treasurer. This makes two candidates for the same nomination, Fred Gale having previously announced himself. Mr. Helm has been active in republican politics for some time and was prominently engaged in the campaign last fall.

FACE BUSY WEEK IN LEGISLATURE

Legislators, With Time One-Third Gone, Have Many Important Measures to Consider

LOWER BRANCH IN THE LEAD

Prohibition, Convention and Suffrage Bills Will Come Before the Senate This Week

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—The Indiana legislature started on its fourth—and what will probably be the most important week of its sixty day session when both houses met at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Important developments are expected on the prohibition, constitutional convention and suffrage bills and also some of Gov. Goodrich's most important measures during the next six days. The prohibition bill which was passed by the house, was scheduled to be handed down in the senate today by Lieut. Gov. Bush. It will go to the committee on public rights and franchises, which already has a similar bill under consideration and will undoubtedly receive favorable action.

The constitutional convention bill, which has also passed the house, will come up for early action in the senate. The woman suffrage bill in the senate, will probably be acted on before the similar measure before the house. Advocates of woman suffrage are waiting until the senate disposes of the constitutional convention bill, before pushing their measure strongly.

The house will take up the main administration bills immediately. It has cleared its decks of the prohibition and constitutional bills—two of the most important.

Although few bills have been acted on considering the fact that one-third of the period of the session is now passed, all of the preliminary work is out of the way and leaders are expecting to get some fast work out of the legislators from now on. The house will hold sessions on Saturday in the future, Speaker Eschbach announced, and told the members to make their plans accordingly.

The following bills were scheduled to be handed down for third reading and final action in the house of representatives this afternoon.

Durham's bill providing that any individual or corporation in the banking business may be a public depository, upon giving bonds signed by at least eleven freeholders.

Jinnett's bill reducing the salary of the quarter master general from $1,800 to $1,000 a year.

Southard's measure amending civil proceedings law in regard to change of venue in civil cases. The bill would make it more difficult to procure a change of venue in such cases.

Dilworth's bill raising the qualifications for officers of the Indiana National Guard.

Kimmel's bill providing that city court warrants may be served by policemen and constables deputized by city judges.

Walker's bill directing the attorney general to conduct an investigation of charges of discrimination against Indiana oil companies by out-of-state oil concerns. Walker declares that Indiana oil companies are being ruined by this discrimination.

Houghton's bill to permit incorporated towns to assume the indebtedness of school towns.

The following bills will come up in the senate for third reading and final vote.

Kinder's bill to provide for temporary loans by school boards. School taxes are not paid to the boards until six months after they are collected and schools are often pressed for funds.

Beardsley's bill providing for the return to counties of all money collected.

WANTS DOCTORS FOR FUTURE USE

Army and Navy Department Plans to Place Instructors in American Colleges

CONFERENCE TO BE HELD

Expected That Action Will Furnish 3,000 Medical Graduates for Service

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 29.—Following the general program of "preparedness," instructors in military sanitation and medicine furnished by the War and Navy Departments probably will be placed in 95 of the foremost medical colleges of the United States, February 1.

This action is intended to equip our institutions of medicine and surgery with a course of training that will fit the future medical profession of the country to promote betterment of health in times of peace, and to prepare it for its duty in any untoward crisis.

It followed a conference in Washington January 6 in which deans of Medical schools in all sections of the country, members of the Advisory Commission of the Council of National Defense, members of the Committee of American Physicians, and high officers of the Army and Navy participated.

The invitations to the conference were extended by Secretary of War Baker following the suggestion of the Council of National Defense which had the hearty endorsement of the Committee of American Physicians. The latter organization is strong in advocacy of medical preparedness and desired to co-operate with the government to prepare the profession for their patriotic duty in times of stress.

It is the idea of the Council to furnish the graduating classes of medical schools with a rudimentary military training and it is estimated that this action will furnish 3,000 young medical men fairly well equipped for the medical military service on June 1, the date of their graduation this year. The Secretaries of War and Navy will supply the necessary instructors.

This move in medical preparedness has the unique distinction of claiming the support of both militarists and pacifists in that the physician and surgeon is engaged in the humane efforts of life saving throughout the horrible destructions of war.

Such a course of training is not contemplated with the sole thought of war, but also that future members of the profession may be prepared to face the problems arising from national calamity and catastrophe in times of peace.

WINTER SPORTS CARNIVAL OPENS

IS SECOND ANNUAL AFFAIR

Louis J. Hill Backs Event, Furnishing 2,500 Warm Woollens For Children.

(By United Press.)

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 29.—Robed in multi-colored costumes that breathed the spirit of the Northlands, thousands of men and women, boys and girls Saturday frolicked in St. Paul's snow banks, and disported in sub zero air. It is the second annual St. Paul Outdoor Winter Sports carnival, and will last until Feb. 3.

The city was given over entirely to gaiety today. Parades, marching clubs demonstrations, and all activities of the monster celebration were held indoors. The affair this year grew near national. Its boosters plan that it will surpass the New Orleans Mardi Gras, the St. Louis Veiled Prophet unveiling, and the Seattle rose week celebrations.

Louis W. Hill, son of the late James J. Hill, Empire builder, and now head of his father's interests, is back of the carnival. He costumed 2,500 in warm woollens for the event. Delegations come from Winnipeg, Chicago, Butte, Mont., and intermediate points.

Hundreds of bands played uncomplainingly in the low temperatures throughout the city. Strong men from the South St. Paul Stock yards formed a fearless "Hook 'em Cow," marching club, which made merry by permissively grabbing any one not smiling, and bounding them in a blanket.

Dr. C. L. Smullen has filed a claim against the estate of B. J. Jackson for $59.25.

Protracted meetings will begin in the Gowdy Methodist church this evening, with the pastor, the Rev. C. E. Hester, as evangelist.

"TOM BROWN" IS AT LARGE AGAIN

Thomas Mott Osborne Completes "Term" at Naval Prison Where He Investigated.

GOT INSIDE INFORMATION

With Him Were Three Others and They Were all Treated Exactly Like Prisoners.

(By United Press.)

Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 29.—"Tom Brown," who has served terms in Auburn, Sing Sing, Dannemora and had long experience in jails stepped out of Uncle Sam's naval prison here Saturday, a free man. Whether he will go back into jail again soon depends upon his own free will.

For "Tom Brown," be it known, is Thomas Mott Osborne, prison reformer, former warden of New York's famous penal institution at Sing Sing. He completed today a ten day "term" in the naval prison at the request of Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who wanted a complete report on conditions in the prison and the feeling of the inmates—all of them enlisted sailors. With "Brown" for the past ten days as convicts have been Prof. John McCormick, professor of political science at Bowdoin University, and Harry Bodanisky, Osborne's secretary.

The three were treated exactly like other convicts in the prison. They wore the same clothes, ate the same food, did the same hard labor on the Portsmouth rock-piles and no hint was given the convicts but that the trio were real "bad men" serving time like the rest of them.

This is Osborne's third voluntary "term" in a prison to obtain first-hand information as to conditions. His first "sentence" was at Auburn several years ago.

Charles Vohland has accepted a position with the Knecht and Gartin company as book-keeper.

Marriage licenses were issued last Saturday to Milton Goens and Lulu Bruce; Harry D. Clark and Charlotte Vandivier.

TO START DITCH WORK.

Gary, Ind., Jan. 29.—Work on the Burns' ditch which will connect the Little Calumet river with Lake Michigan and prevent flood danger in the Calumet valley, reclaiming, nearly 22,000 acres of land, will be started within a few weeks. Three hundred and sixty square miles of territory will be affected. The ditch was proposed nearly ten years ago but was delayed because of litigation. The work will be done by Lake and Foster counties.

The City League bowling games for this week are: Postoffice and Elks on Tuesday night and Masons vs. K. of P's. on Friday night.

REFLECTS CHANGED GERMAN SENTIMENT

Speech by Court Preacher in Striking Contrast to One Pleading for Peace Year Ago

SAYS GOD IS ON THEIR SIDE

By CARL W. ACKERMAN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Berlin, Jan. 29.—Where one year ago Dr. Dryander, court preacher, pleaded for an hour for peace in the services marking the kaiser's birthday, this year his sermon was a fiery defense of Germany's cause and a militant plea for Germany to steel herself for the decisive battles everyone believes is coming.

In this changed spirit he reflected the sentiment of the German people. His sermon evoked approval everywhere.

"We know," he said "that before us are the decisive battles which can be fought only with the greatest sacrifices. But in all cases of the past God has helped and God will fight for us today through our leaders and our soldiers. We neither will nor wanted this war—neither the kaiser nor the people. We hoped for peace and the kaiser extended his peace proposal, but with unheard of frivolity and insult our enemies slapped the back of the kaiser's extended hand of peace.

"To such enemies there is only one voice—that of cannons. We continue the war with a clear conscience and with trust in God that he will bring us victory. God can not—he will not permit the German people to go down."

Mrs. James Barrett was operated on at the Sexton sanatorium Saturday morning.

HOOSIER PESTS

BY R. E. SNODGRASS.
Assistant state entomologist.
(Written for United Press.)

"Goodness gracious, there's a fly at this time of the year! Doesn't it beat all how they hang on!" Yes, it certainly does. We used to read that a fly lived only a week or so at the most, but recently the birth records have been kept of some of the oldest known individuals and one lived to the ripe old age of three months and one day. But he was kept under conditions very favorable to the longevity of a fly—plenty to eat and a cool temperature. Insects seem born with just so much energy to use up. The faster they live, the sooner they die.

The warmth of summer keeps them active and then they soon exhaust themselves with family cares, carousings about the sugar bowl and molasses pitcher. But in winter their ardor is cooled and their activities lessened, so consequently they live quieter and much longer lives at this season, if not exposed to freezing.

Those now in houses were born sometime in the autumn and will die of senility, if nothing else, before spring—which is encouraging.

All of next year's flies are at the bottom of the manure piles, shut up in small, dark brown capsules. The first ones will emerge during the earliest warm days, perhaps even before the end of winter and these will mingle with the patriarchs of the winter. So, while swatting the first fly of the season is an endeavor to be commended, it would be difficult to establish any fly's identity as such. Therefore, have no mercy; swat all comers. Cut them down in the fullness of youth and the infirmity of age.

DRIVE AWAY HEADACHE

Rub Musterole on Forehead and Temples

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can affect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

Prosperity vs. High Prices.

"No such thing exists in America as prosperity for just one class, unless it exists for all." So said a noted statesman last fall, and millions of Americans believed him, but we differ from him.

Our present so-called prosperity is a prosperity of classes.

It is most emphatically not a prosperity of the masses.

The munitions manufacturer is prosperous because Europe is clamoring for his products.

The automobile maker prospers because the craze for the buzz wagon is on the upward slant.

The farmer prospers because Europe demands his products.

How to Master the Machinery of the Body

(By N. B. COOK, M. D.)

The machinery of the body needs to be oiled, kept in good condition just as the automobile or bicycle. Why should the human neglect his own machinery more than that of his horse or his engine? Yet most people do neglect themselves. Their tongue has a dark brown color, skin sallow, breath bad, yet they fail to see that their machinery needs attention. Everybody should take a mild laxative at least once a week. A pleasant way to clear the tongue and the highly colored water noticed in the morning is to take a laxative at least once a week. A pleasant way to clear the tongue and the highly colored water noticed in the morning is to take a laxative at least once a week. A pleasant way to clear the tongue and the highly colored water noticed in the morning is to take a laxative at least once a week.

A pleasant vegetable pill is made up of May-apple, leaves of aloe, and jalap, made into a tiny pellet and coated with sugar. First put up by Dr. Pierce nearly 50 years ago. Druggists sell these vegetable pellets in vials—simply ask for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

If backache, scalding urine or frequent urination bother or distress you, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, gout or sciatica, if you suspect that you have kidney or bladder trouble, write Dr. Pierce, at Invalid's Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., send a sample of urine, and describe symptoms. A physician and chemist will examine it without charge and you will be under no obligation whatever. Dr. Pierce's Anuric tablets cannot fail to help you, because their action flushes the kidneys of impurities and puts strength into them.

Obtain a 50-cent box of Anuric (double strength) today from your druggist in town. From personal observation in large hospital practice, Anuric will give you speedy relief.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness," and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

prosper because a war crazed Europe need their wares with such to prolong the struggle.

And there the real prosperity ends.

The millions of salaried men and women and the more modest wage earners are immeasurably worse off than they were five years ago. Thousands of printers and publishers are facing actual ruin. The small merchant has difficulty in making both ends meet. Thousands of professional men are wondering how they can pay their rent.

High prices are the result of this half prosperity, but all people have them to pay. The Classes have the money with which to pay, but the masses are wondering where in blazes it is coming from.

Putting it Over.

A certain country town once possessed an influential citizen who opposed every worthy movement not fathered by himself. He was a chronic kicker and the despair of the town, for in one way or another he invariably carried his point.

One day a small band of "live wires" devised a new way to get an improvement through. They secretly arranged for it to be introduced at the meeting of the village board, with the public invited to express their views.

The "live ones" were present, and so was the kicker. But contrary to his expectations the "wires" vociferously opposed the measure. This was too much for the kicker, and he immediately launched into a strenuous advocacy of the measure which he had previously intended to "kill." It carried with a whoop. We might take a lesson and "put one over" in Rushville.

Life may not be all roses on the farm, but there is a heap of satisfaction in knowing that every time a hen cackles you can hear the money jingling in your pockets.

Happy thought! Let's form a league to keep the boys in the trenches until Christmas. Then perhaps they will hop out.

The fire eater who habitually carries a chip on his shoulder often finds that he is too insignificant for a real man even to notice.

The optimist sees one side and the pessimist the other, but the rest of the world just wades right in and helps itself.

When the burden of your troubles is too heavy to carry, wriggle from under.

MUST WAIT ANOTHER YEAR

Spanish War Widows to Get No Pensions Now.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 29.—Widows and minor children of officers and enlisted men who have served in the War with Spain who have been hoping to be granted pensions this congress probably will be disappointed. These hoping for governmental relief and recognition must wait another year.

Swamped with appropriation bills and an administration railroad program which must be considered before March 4, Representative Johnson of Maine today admitted he had little hope that congress would take up his pensions bill before adjournment.

Another Training Camp to be Opened at Chevy Chase This Coming Spring.

1,500 MAKE APPLICATION

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 29.—Joy reigns in many a debutante heart here. A second season of the National Service School, where ambitious girl rookies are initiated into the mysteries of soldiering, has been announced.

They'll drill and march, and wig-wag at signals, and shoot, and the smell of powder—no sir, not talem—will pervade the air about the Chevy Chase suburbs of the capital again next Spring. The encampment will begin April 16 under the auspices of the woman's section of the Navy League.

The school will be in session six weeks—the course to consist of 20 days. Senator Newlands estate last year's site, will probably again be used.

More than 1500 applications for instruction are already on file. The Red Cross, as was the case last year, will conduct the classes.

WHY THAT LAME BACK?

That morning lameness—those sharp pains when bending or lifting, make work a burden and rest impossible. Don't be handicapped by a bad back—look to your kidneys. You will make no mistake by following this Rushville resident's example.

Samuel A. Brown, 206 Pearl St., Rushville, says: "I had a severe attack of backache and it became worse every day. Finally, the trouble was so bad that I could hardly raise my foot above the ground. When I stopped I thought my back would break. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and was very much surprised at the prompt way in which they stopped the trouble. In a few days, I was free from pain."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Brown had. Foster-McLburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—(Adv.)

SOLDIERS DON'T TALK OF VALOR

Their Idea of Hero is Not One Who is One Merely For the Newspapers.

EVERYTHING DONE FOR UNIT

Carries Out Theory That the English Are Enormously Reserved People.

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

With the British Armies in the Field, Jan. 4—(By Mail)—The world knows the English as a race of enormously reserved people. Just how reserved they really are one must live out here to realize. The most thrilling engagement of the war does not loosen the Englishman's tongue any more than his afternoon tea, if as much.

I have been trying to get the story of some British heroes. It can't be done. They say they do belong to the unit they happen to be in. The unit says the glory belongs to the next higher unit and so on until one is told that the honor belongs to the whole British army.

The theory is that it is very unfair for an individual to be signaled as a hero. They say it is not treating the other fellow right for one to be press-agented and heralded all over the world as the doer of a great deed because every day there are hundreds upon hundreds of men who are risking their lives in the deadliest of dangerous undertakings and are never even heard of. Luck, one is told, makes more heroes than anything else—luck which provides the opportunity and luck which lets one be seen while grasping it.

The French look at it much the same way but if anything the British carry the idea further. A French aviator is called an "ace" when he brings down his fifth enemy aeroplane and gets his name in the papers. There are many English airmen who are aces yet whose names have never appeared outside the official secret communiques circulated among the higher staff officer only.

Here is a concrete example: A certain lieutenant of the Royal Flying Corps was mentioned in one of these communiques. It seems he had engaged an enemy aeroplane, fought

HOOSIER BRIEFS.

Vincennes—Declaring that his wife threatened to "cut out his heart" William Koehler filed suit for divorce.

Washington—Davies county farmers were urged to raise tomatoes at a meeting today under the supervision of a packing company of Terre Haute.

Evansville—Walter Dravis was driving his coal wagon in a circle when he was arrested on the charge of intoxication.

Kokomo—Edward Rowson has filed suit against his son, Norman, to have a contract which father and son entered into. The son agreed to work in his father's drug store until August, 1917 but has failed to live up to his agreement, according to the complaint.

Markle—The farmers institute, conducted by farmers of this vicinity during the last two days, closed today.

Indianapolis—Cole Walton, was found dead shortly after a bill collector called to see him. The landlady said she heard Walton fall shortly after the collector left. Heart failure caused his death.

a duel with it among the clouds, and downed it fairly and squarely. Hoping to make an exception of this case permission was sought to use the aviator's name. It was courteously, but firmly, refused. What he had done was not to his own personal glory but to the glory of the R. F. C.

And when the Royal Flying Corps is asked about it, it insists the honor is the Army's.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do the care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

FANS DESIRE TO SEE LONG BOUTS

Clamor For Fight Between Dillon and Miske Over Twenty Round Course.

WOULD SETTLE ALL ARGUMENT

Two Previous Meetings Have Resulted in Draws, With Miske Favored

BY H. C. HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Jan. 29.—The two bouts staged recently in New York between Billy Miske, the light heavyweight demon of St. Paul, and Jack Dillon, the Indianapolis wiz, have accomplished at least one thing. They have proved beyond a question that the fans never will be satisfied as to who is really the better man until the two have had a chance to mill it out in a long bout with a referee's decision tacked onto the last round.

Each bout between the two in New York has resulted in an overwhelming opinion among New York newspapers in favor of Miske. Each time, however, there have been enough dissenting voices to make it quite apparent that enough of a shade was not earned to warrant a decision. In the first bout, two papers awarded a decision to Dillon, while two others called the bout a draw.

Such slamming and banging as has been indulged in by these boys certainly calls for a better opportunity than has been afforded in New York with a referee who refused to recognize that Queensberry rules call for a man to fight with one arm free. They deserve a bout somewhere where the proceeds will be enough to compensate them for the splendid exhibitions they give. Also, they deserve the decision that would be given.

New York promoters undoubtedly will be after a return match between the boys. The fans like that kind of milling and they'd be the greatest attraction possible, with the exception of Les Darcy, in their division. It is not improbable that Darcy will be matched with one or the other.

Indianapolis—Gale Smiley took a cold plunge in a canal when he missed the bridge while on his way home after a "night out."

HOOSIER PEST

By R. E. Snodgrass.
(Written for United Press.)

One drop of water out of a bucket might never be noticed but a few million might empty it. One San Jose scale on an apple tree could not suck out enough sap to make any difference but millions of them can suck its life away. The San Jose scale is the worst sucker there is, but it is no fool for all of that.

In the spring each female gives birth to several hundred young. The young ones plant their beaks in the bark, shed their six legs, secrete a waxy covering over their backs and settle down to business. Three or four generations of the pest are produced during the summer, so that each infested tree stands little chance of healthy growth or of producing a crop of salable fruit.

Fortunately there is a sure remedy for this pest. Lime-sulphur may be purchased by the gallon or barrel, diluted in six parts of water and sprayed on the trees during a warm, dry spell in winter or early spring before the buds begin to open. Otherwise it may injure the leaves.

Oil preparations are also used with success. They have the advantage of spreading better and being easier to use.

One point to be remembered in spraying is that every bit of surface must be covered, for there may be enough scales on some neglected spot to repopulate the entire tree in the spring. Whether or not spraying is effective, depends upon the man who does the job.

REDUCES CHURCH DEBT $7,000

all be inspired so that the future will find us with just as beautiful and commodious churches."

"I once had an aunt," said the Rev. J. T. Aikin of the United Presbyterian, "and her only failing was that she thought God was a United Presbyterian. I shared that belief with her for a time but have come to see it differently now. I rejoice with the Rev. Huntington and the church and I believe God commends this people for such sacrifices. I think this is a beautiful church. It is most inviting and particularly well adapted for the uses to which it is to be put.

"The house of God, by its presence, through its costliness and its beauty, ought to show that religion is the most important thing in the city. I think this beautiful building should leave that impression."

The Rev. C. M. Yocum of the Main Street Christian church was introduced by the Rev. Mr. Huntington as the oldest, youngest and smallest minister in the city. The Rev. Mr. Yocum said that it was often the privilege of a speaker in the position he was to say "last but not least," but that it was not his privilege.

He told the story of the man who took the position as brakeman on a passenger train in an emergency and was instructed to call the name of the next station at his end of the car after the conductor called it. He succeeded at first but when the train reached a central point and the conductor called out a long string of cities for which passengers could change cars, the fellow was stumped—but not for long.

"Same at this end," he shouted, and the minister said that expressed his sentiments exactly in regard to what the other ministers had said, because he was in hearty accord with what they had said.

"I am not surprised that the Baptists found water under this church," the Rev. Mr. Yocum said, "because I assure you, Brother Whitsitt, that you will find water if you go deep enough into the earth or the Bible either."

"I congratulate the church on the possession of a pastor through whose zeal, enthusiasm and energy this house of worship was made possible. There is such a vast difference in the work that can be done in this church and the old one that it is beyond comparison. I congratulate you for that for which the church stands. There is no institution in the world that is a greater power for good than the church of the living God."

REVIVAL ANNOUNCED

The Rev. S. G. Huntington announced that a series of protracted meetings would be started at the First Baptist church next Sunday night and that he would be assisted by the Rev. C. B. Jones of Greensburg.

MILROY WINS ANOTHER

The Milroy independents kept up their winning streak Saturday night when they defeated the Batesville independent basketball team at Milroy, 61 to 19. They will play the Manilla independents at Manilla Wednesday night and the Greensburg Y. M. C. A. at Milroy next Saturday night.

APPROPRIATES SUM OF $13,555

County Council Makes Possible Payment of Claims for Much Work Already Completed

THE MONEY REVERTED BACK

The county council appropriated a total of $13,555 Saturday before adjourning. This sum is largely for work already completed and covered by an appropriation last year, but which was not completed in time. At the end of the year all such money thus appropriated reverts back to the county.

In the list of appropriation is the sum of $3,000 for the repair of the Isaac Webb bridge. This is the bridge over Flatrock commonly known as Webb's ford. The bridge is in bad condition and is said to be dangerous.

The appropriations follow: expense of clerk's office, $750; expense of court house, $1,500; congressional interest, $1,125; Blue river bridge, Rush-Hancock county line, $4,700; Ora Logan bridge, $770; Rush-Henry county line bridge, $1,150; Riggs-See bridge, $560; Isaac Webb bridge, $3,000.

MARY ANN ALGER EXPIRES SUNDAY

Widow of Cyrus Alger Dies of Senility and Blood Poisoning at Her Home Here

FUNERAL TUESDAY AT 2 P. M.

Mrs. Mary Ann Alger, 90 years old, widow of the late Cyrus Alger, died Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock at her home, 11093 North Morgan street following an illness of several weeks from senility and blood poisoning. Mrs. Alger was a native of Pennsylvania. When two years old her parents moved to Ohio and then to Indiana. They located near Glenwood and Mrs. Alger had been a resident of this city and county since she was eight years old. She was a member of the Methodist church.

She is survived by two children, Mrs. L. H. Doughty and Charles Alger. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the late residence by the Rev. W. M. Whitsitt and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

The women's clubs in this city, members of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, have received the state president's annual letter of greeting. The letter encourages that the women give every possible assistance in helping to build up their cities. The club women of Rushville have helped much in the public activities here and will continue through the co-operation of the state organization and the local organizations in making possible better things for the citizens of Rushville.

The message in part says:

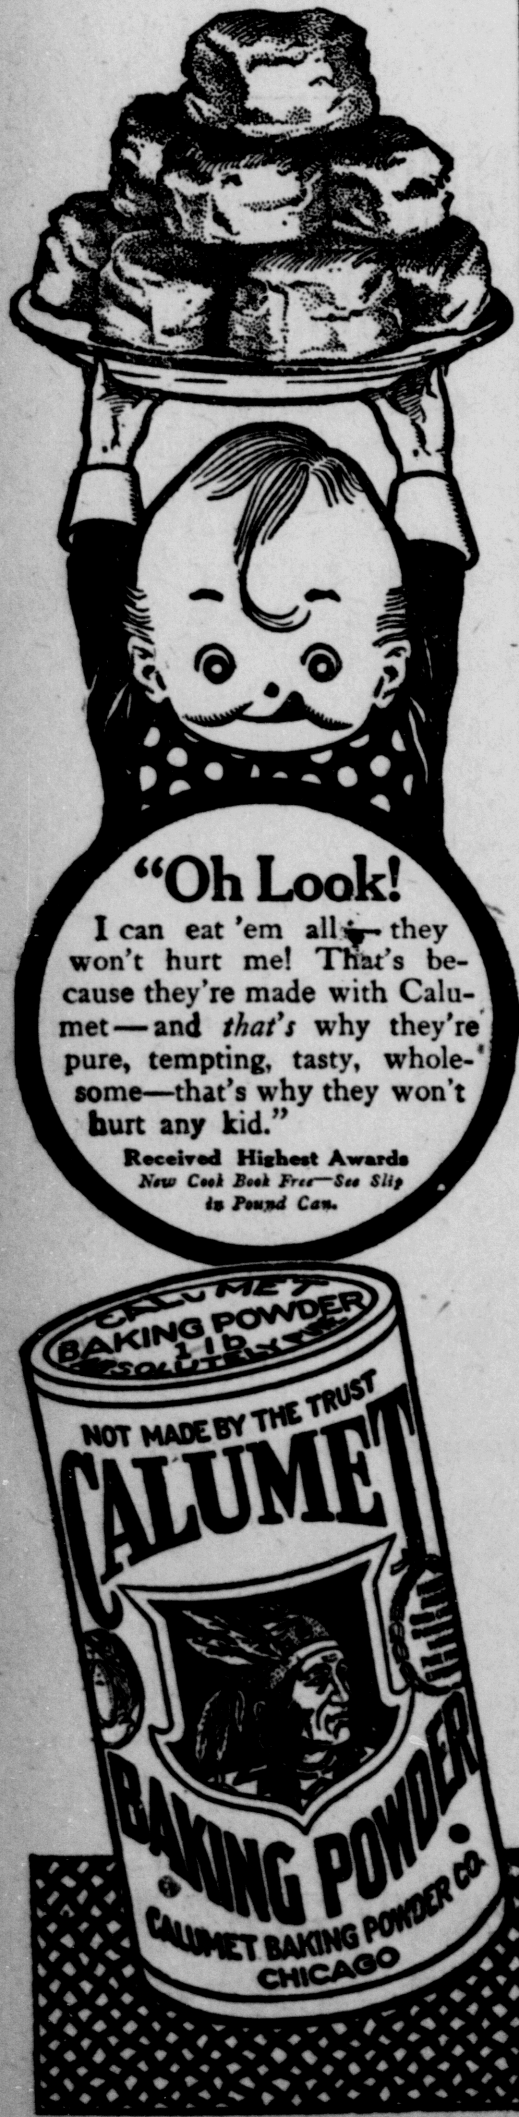

"In entering upon my second term of office, I am filled with high optimism for the Federation. I have a vision of the wonderful growth and progress that will come from our unity—for we are as one in striving for the things that are most important—working for better conditions for humanity, for the betterment of our towns, our state, our nation.

"There are fifty State Federations belonging to the General Federation. Indiana ranks eighth in number of club members. This is a fine showing. We are proud of our state.

"Let us look forward to another year of fruitful endeavor. 'Hitch your wagon to a star,' and do not fear to broaden out whenever possible. Have a sympathetic outlook, and let your activities be broad and democratic."

Among the things which the club women will strive for this year and in which the local women will join, will be the securing of police-women and branches of the National Red Cross in every city.

Special stress is laid in the letter on baby week which will be observed by the club the week of May 1st to 6th. The child bureau will co-operate with the clubs in making this a success as well as health officials. No united feature of the clubs is more interesting than this week, during which prizes are given to the most perfect babies.

RIOTS CONTINUE AT BRIDGE TODAY

Mexican Newspapers in El Paso Say it is Due to Triumph in Causing U. S. Withdrawal

WAS FORCED BY CARRANZA

(By United Press.) El Paso, Texas, Jan. 29.—Serious rioting by Mexicans at the Juarez end of the international bridge was resumed today. A crowd of 500 men and women incensed at not being allowed to cross the bridge until bathed began throwing stones at American soldiers. Two of the guards were injured. As the mob advanced across the bridge a company of soldiers charged them with clubbed rifles, driving them back.

About 8 o'clock Mexican cavalry with whips charged the mob and drove all off the bridge but was unable to disperse the crowd.

Mexican newspapers printed here declared that the rioting was the outgrowth of triumph over General Pershing's withdrawal from Mexico which the newspapers declared was forced by the Carranzista government.

SAYS PERSHING IS COMING

(By United Press.) San Antonio, Jan. 29.—"General Pershing is on his way out of Mexico." Thus did General Funston today make first official announcement at headquarters of the withdrawal of the American punitive expedition.

COLONIALS ARE MAKING HISTORY

Available Records Show England's Overseas Contingents Are More Than Loyal.

ALL MAKE NAMES FOR SELVES

More Great Things Expected in Spring Drive But They Can't be Overshadowed.

BY W. S. FORREST.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Jan. 27—(By Mail)—Everlasting pages have been added to British Colonial history in the Battle of the Somme.

Available records of this great struggle show that every one of Britain's overseas contingents has chosen some particular elevation, valley, village or wood whose name will live like America's Bunker Hill.

The Canadians carved their niche of fame at Courcellette. It was the French Canadians here who brilliantly carried out their part of the General Staff's set program and then pressed on, storming the fortress village, filled to the brim with Germans. Competent military authorities say it was simply Canadian valor and impetuosity that put Courcellette behind the Allied lines within an hour, whereas it had been expected to hold out a week. Historical versions of the Battle of the Somme can never be written without the story of the Canadians' dash through and over the complicated defences the Germans had built at Courcellette. The taking of Regina trench, named in honor of Regina, Saskatchewan, is another feat and name that will find print in every record of Canadian fighting. The Canadians at Ypres is another chapter which has nothing to do with the Somme.

The troops of diminutive New Foundland have selected a November day for annual national observance. The scene of New Foundland's triumph in the Somme struggle will probably be named before many months. Hieroglyphical military maps describe the scene as "F39c2.5 to 40A132." That's all the location it has so far but what happened in that trench filled with New Foundland's enemies is what New Foundland has to be thankful for. The thinned New Foundland bayonets that reduced it to a ditch of dead fought counter-attacks to a standstill while a German artillery barrage smothered life on the ground between them and their original line. Troops working on the right in conjunction with the men from New Foundland were unable to carry their part of the trench. The victorious North American Islanders therefore fought their way into every corner of the stronghold and cleared it. They held the trench and have got it yet.

Pozieres is a word that means a lot to the burly Australians. The

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freeze-one applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freeze-one, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Clip this out and pin on your wife's dresser.

"Put One Over"

We have been lucky enough to be furnished with quite a number of Maxwell automobiles by way of the company cancelling a neighbor dealer's contract at the time when there were three carloads of cars shipped to him from the factory. We were offered these cars and, of course, took them.

At the same time we were offered the opportunity of increasing our contract with the company, thereby increasing our schedule of cars per month.

With these two explanations, we are now ready to tell you that we have in stock and between here and Detroit thirty-nine (39) Maxwell Automobiles and all of them purchased at the old price.

The factory has increased the price $40 per car. We intend to sell these 39 cars at the old price.

Touring Car	- - - -	$610.00
Roadster	- - - -	$595.00

We have 13 of these cars sold that have not been delivered. This leaves us 26 cars to sell you at the old price. There is only one way you can get one—give us your order with a deposit on it. We will keep the car for you until you are ready. Those who want to take advantage of this $40 saving can get in if they do so before these cars are all taken.

Remember, only 26 cars, and by the way, these are all splinter new ones just received—some of them, as before stated, not yet here.

Stanley Automobile Company

Phone 2132

Antipodal whirlwind which came slowly up the rising ground from Ovillers-la-Boisselle and gained its highest velocity in the shell-scarred ruins of Pozieres will long be remembered by the forces who tried to keep the village. Even Australians give the Germans credit for the most extreme of extreme efforts to hold this keypoint of the ridge that overlooks the Baupenne plateau. But extreme efforts didn't stop the Australian giants who fought with bombs, bayonets, fists and teeth in and out of every house in the village. Magnificent physique is what won Pozieres, said an authority from the front, that—added to perfect courage and a whole lot of determination.

Delville Wood is already a historical South African name. History at Delville Wood runs back to July 18, when the South African fighters fell back out of the wood on the decimated ranks of Scottish Highlanders who had held their wrecked trenches there for four days. Outnumbered six to one the Africans and their kilted compatriots rallied, stopped the enemy's rush, broke him and drove him back to a line which the enemy has tried but has never taken. Delville Wood is so firmly driven into South African history that it will never come out.

The little village of Flers figures most prominent in New Zealand's history of the Somme. Sweeping through this village, in conjunction with supporting troops, they bombed and bayoneted their way into and up and down the German main third line and held their gains.

What was once a few square miles of peaceful undulating countryside, miniature hills and wooded valleys with minature topped, church spired, villages breaking the passage of chalk white roads is today a few square miles of blackened shell scarred desolation. But this small portion of Northern France, which represents a pinhead on an ordinary map, has made more British colonial history than all the former wars. It will make more history in the Spring for the whole world, it is believed today, but what colonial history it has so far made will probably never be overshadowed.

The Anker Holth Cream Separator

is the only Self Balancing Separator on the market. And the bowl is guaranteed to stay in balance the life of the machine. The Anker Holth skims the cleanest and is the easiest to keep clean and can be washed in one half the time you can wash any other separator. Every user of an Anker Holth remarks—HOW EASY it turns. This fact is especially noticeable to those who have operated other separators. A child can operate an Anker Holth with ease. The self oiling system—has no oil holes no feed cups—it simply runs in a bath of oil, and every two or three months change the oil by removing a set screw.

The Anker Holth contains fewer mechanical parts than any other separator made. And the bowl being self draining makes it non freezing in cold weather. There is no number on the disk and they are all interchangeable—they do not have to be kept on a stringer to wash them.

Nothing but the highest grade of steel and the best phosphor bronze and the most durable tinware goes into the construction of the Anker Holth.

The Anker Holth Cream Separator is the best Separator on the market today for Efficiency, Simplicity, Sanitation, Satisfaction and Durability

GOOD PROVIDER'S FAMILY

Pure food brings you strength and health. Better far than fame or wealth!

FAME or WEALTH are apt to interfere with a man's sleep as much as indigestion. Three squares a day of the proper victuals will bring to a man all the happiness he can comfortably assimilate.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Backache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

MRS. SANGER IS AGAIN IN COURT

Tried Today on Charges Growing Out of Maintenance of Birth Control Clinic.

SISTER OF ETHEL BYRNE

Defense to Secure Testimony of Physicians as to Death Rate
Among Children.

(By United Press.)

New York, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Margaret Sanger, New York's fighting, judge-defying birth control advocate, and her associate, Miss Fanny Mindell, will be tried today in special sessions on charges growing out of the maintenance of a birth control clinic by Mrs. Sanger in Brooklyn.

The defense intends making a strenuous effort to get the testimony of physicians into the case saying the death rate among children ascends astonishingly with the increase in births per family. The defense is willing to attempt to prove from voluminous statistics that deaths per 1000 births in families having less than three children is 108.5; three or four children 126; five or six children 152.8; seven or eight children 176.4; nine or more children 191.9.

As in the case of Mrs. Ethel Byrne, Mrs. Sanger's sister who was convicted and whose case is now on appeal, the defense will argue that birth control is not birth elimination but merely voluntary motherhood.

Friends of Mrs. Sanger's from all strata of society—flurred women in limousines and the very poor—plan to give her their support.

WHAT-YOU-MAY COLUMN

Horseradish.

Horseradish is a pernicious, vindictive, ill natured vegetable that has to be watched every minute. Boiled beef is its only excuse.

Little is known of horseradish except that it grows in china pots and loads around cheap lunch counters at midnight. Mustard, salt shakers, catsup and cab drivers are its boon companions.

The only thing to be said in favor of horseradish is that it doesn't get into plaster on people's backs and blistered them up. It will be pleased to choke you if it gets a chance, but won't go out of its way to do harm, like mustard.

Ice.

Ice is one of the cold, hard facts of life that we are forever bumping into; and one of the few things in this world that's what it's cracked up to be.

Ice is a paradox. It is used by cold storage men to make it hot for the public and it would be a cold day for them if they didn't have it.

Ice was invented by Divine Providence to keep our rivers and lakes from freezing to death. During the summer it comes in chunks and goes in a hurry. It is what housewives and saloonkeepers depend on in July and fall on in January.

Ice is found in the stare of box office clerks and on the shoulders of society leaders. Married women stand on it in their bare feet just before they go to bed. It is used by Americans to cool their cocktails and by polar bears to cool their own tails.

Ice rides around in big wagons and has a good time; and when it gets tired of life it melts and runs away.

DARCY'S STAGE VENTURE FROST

Despite Publicity he Received His Theatrical Effort Was Dismal
Flivver.

SMALL CROWDS EVERYWHERE

Only Eighty People Paid Admission
in Philadelphia and he Threatened to Quit.

BY H. C. HAMILTON,
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Jan. 29.—Les Darcy, king of the 'Antipodean' slingers, found the American public far away from the idea of clogging up theater seats just to see him waltz a few rounds with Freddie Gilmore and demonstrate the punches he used to win his way to Australian fame.

His junket through eastern cities has been one of the most dismal flivvers history ever has been called upon to chronicle.

Despite the fact that Darcy had received more publicity in a few weeks than the average scrapper gets in a lifetime the public didn't fall for his theatrical efforts. His first stop—Bridgeport, Conn.—showed the way the wind was blowing when the theater wasn't even comfortably filled.

Jumps were made to other towns and the same sort of desultory interest was shown in his appearance. When Philadelphia was reached Darcy was so discouraged with the number of persons who wanted to be his audience that he left the theater, and it was only by argument and threat that he could be induced to return and entertain the eighty or so fans.

The reason for his failure should be apparent and should be a warning to other theatrically ambitious scrappers. Folks who really are interested in ring battles don't care to see a boxer step onto a stage and merely go through the motions of a fight. They want to see him fight.

Any one so popular as Darcy would have no trouble at all in jamming a fight arena with fans to see him battle. Others who go to a theater to be entertained are rarely interested in the doings of the boxers, so they fail to become greatly excited.

Darcy was out of his sphere when he went on the stage. He will have to get the vaudeville reputation before he can hop to make sardine repositories of theaters. He is an arena filler, not a theater-packer.

The Waste Basket.

Dear Reader—There is a paper famine in this country. Your individual help is needed to stop it. If you will watch this little box every day we will try to tell you how you can do that.

We used to import 50 per cent of the rags and old paper used in making news paper, wrapping paper, writing paper, cardboard, all kinds of paper. The war has stopped that supply. In consequence, paper prices have gone up, in some instances 400 per cent.

Retail stores can help by posting notices asking customers not to insist on having parcels wrapped up if they can be conveniently handled otherwise. Customers can help by acting on the suggestion.

Housewives can help by saving rags and waste paper, bundling them up and selling them to the junk man. Tomorrow we will tell you some of the kinds of rags most in demand, and why.

Charm Best Adornment.

No, really girls, I am not very fond of jewelry of any sort. While some people wear it very well, most of us are just as attractive without it.

Let me tell you a little story which will explain what I mean:

In June I gave a housewarming at my new bungalow on Long Island. As the girls finished removing their wraps they came down stairs and I met them in the reception hall. Here we stood waiting for the stragglers before entering the living room where the men had congregated. How most of them scintillated with beautiful gems! Dinner rings, diamonds, bracelets, ropes of pearls—all had their place. I'll be perfectly honest with you; for a short time I almost wish that I had worn at least a gold band on my arm.

As this thought entered my head, I chanced to glance toward the stairs to see dear Ethel descending. She had just reached the landing and how beautiful she did look against a white background of the woodwork. She was wearing a dull blue tulle dress—made simply in a bodice effect and somewhat short. Her feet were encased in satin slippers of a color to match and perfectly plain, and her hair was dressed somewhat high upon her head without a single ornament, not even a jeweled comb.

“Oh, Ethel, how lovely you look,” came amongst a series of “Ahs,” and “Ohs.” And—although she does not belong to the “dazzling” type—the admiration was earned.

As she came up to greet me I couldn't help notice that she wore no jewelry save a wedding and an engagement ring.

Then I felt a little more satisfied. For although every one of the girls looked lovely, not one outshone Ethel as she gracefully moved about exchanging sallies with her different friends.

All eyes seemed to be attracted to her compellingly, for her very simplicity added to her natural grace and charm. Sometimes, I'll admit, a person needs the embellishment lent by glittering gems. When this is so, wear them.

There are types that appear to better advantage with jewelry than without. I believe this type to be comparatively rare, however, and am sure that most of you, like Ethel, would be far more attractive with your natural adornment.

If you live a good wholesome life let your eyes be your gems. They will sparkle sufficiently, I am sure.

Helen Clark to Be Heard In Edison Tone Test Here

Modern science has brought forth many wonders and it seems as though man, through the exercise of his intellectual powers, almost has made himself immortal. Thought was made immortal when the printing press was invented; form and motion were made undying by the creation of the motion picture, and now the actual voice has been made to live forever. At least, the last named accomplishment has been achieved according to reports that have been received from greatest musical centers of America where the discussed tone-tests, given in connection with a new product of the laboratory of Thomas A. Edison, have been heard. And the people of Rushville are going to be given an opportunity to judge for themselves merits of the latest achievement of Mr. Edison, for it has been announced that one of these wonderful recitals—recitals that have stirred and amazed musicians and music critics in many of the large cities of America—will be given in this city at the United Presbyterian church February 13.

The affair that has been held here was arranged to gratify the curiosity of local music lovers who have heard of the tests given in New York, Boston, and other cities and who have heard of the tests given in New York, Boston, and other cities and who have expressed the desire that such a test be given here. Invitations have been received by many prominent musicians of the city and admission to the exclusive affair will be by ticket only. The principal artist of the occasion will be Helen Clark, one of the most popular and talented singers of the concert platform. All of the impressive features that have been incorporated into the metropolitan tests will be given here. Miss Clark will sing in unison with her voice and also will render duets in which her living voice will carry one part of a song while her re-created voice sings a second part. An unusual degree of interest is being taken in the coming musical event and those who have received invitations are anticipating an evening of the most delightful and impressive entertainment.

REDUCE CHURCH
DEBT BY $7,000

First Baptists Learn at Close of Day
Devoted to Dedication They Owe Only $1,300

REFLECT SPIRIT OF THE DAY

Services Sunday Have to do With Opening of New House of Worship—Big Crowd in Afternoon

When the congregation of the First Baptist church entered upon the day during which their new house of worship was to be dedicated, yesterday morning, the debt on the building, which cost over $12,000, was $8,282. Last night when the final service closed, the debt had been reduced to about $1,300. In other words, close to $7,000 was raised yesterday.

Members of the congregation feel very well satisfied with the day's work, which culminates the months of sacrifice and hard work which they have undergone to make possible the beautiful structure, which yesterday received the praise of admiring hundreds who attended the various services.

Every service Sunday reflected the spirit of the day, but the dedicatory service proper was held in the afternoon at two o'clock when the Rev. Carlos Dinsmore, superintendent of missions for the Indiana Baptist convention, delivered the principal address and short congratulatory talks were made by the pastors of the other four churches. The Rev. Mr. Dinsmore spoke in the morning and the Rev. C. B. Jones of Greensburg at night. More than 300 sat down to the basket dinner in the basement of the church at noon.

The seating capacity of the new church was tested at the afternoon meeting when every available seat was taken and many were compelled to stand. The Rev. Mr. Dinsmore preached a missionary sermon, showing the vastness of the missionary enterprise.

"I want to express my fine appreciation of the feeling that exists between the churches here," he said at the outset, after the other ministers had spoken. "If there is anything that makes my heart heavy and sick, it is to go into a town and find the preachers working against each other and planning their work apart from each other."

"I wish we could all catch some of the enthusiasm which has actuated this congregation in building this magnificent church home," was the thought Dr. D. Ira Lambert of the First Presbyterian church expressed.

He spoke of the value of the church to the community "Blot out the church for six months and see what would happen," he added. "Blot out the church in Indiana for six months and see what would happen. Would that everyone in Rushville could realize that the church of Christ is worth sacrificing for."

"From my heart," he said in closing, "not simply as something for the occasion—I bring you my heartfelt congratulations."

"I bring you the greetings from the Methodist Episcopal denomination and also the local church which I represent," said the Rev. W. M. Whitsett.

"I think I express the feeling of the Christian people of Rushville when I say that it is easy to rejoice with this people in the completion of this beautiful church. It is beneficial to our city in an architectural way and in many other ways. I have watched the progress of this church. I have seen the pastor on the roof of the old church when it was being torn down. I saw him in the basement when they struck water and I marvel at the fact when I think that this was once the site of a Presbyterian church. I hope that this is just the beginning and that we will

PETTY ROBBERIES
ON SUNDAY NIGHT

Two Automobiles are Tampered With and Most of Load of Wood is Stolen from Emory Schmidt.

BOYS HELD RESPONSIBLE

A number of petty robberies last night were reported today. The work for the most part is believed to have been done by local talent. The coal shed of Emory Schmidt of East Eighth street was broken into last night and practically all of his wood taken. He had just purchased a load of wood and over half of it was gone this morning.

The automobile of Will O. Fendler, while standing in front of the residence of Norm Norris in North Main street last night, was ruffled and several articles of value taken. The side pockets of the car were searched and everything carried off. A number of small tools were taken. The work is believed to have been done by a gang of boys.

The machine of Wood Bishop, standing in front of the residence of Josiah Bishop, two houses south of the Norris home, was also tampered with but nothing of value was found missing.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

William Sexton and Duane Reed Said to Have Left for Detroit After Passing Bad Checks

ALLEGED WATCH THEFT, TOO

William Sexton and Duane Reed, high school students are wanted here for passing several fraudulent checks last Saturday night. The two boys are said to have left immediately for Indianapolis after securing the money on the checks. They issued the checks, drawn on their own accounts, without funds in the bank.

Young Sexton obtained $5 from the Greek Candy kitchen and Reed obtained $5 from A. W. Wilkinson. How many other checks they cashed is not known. The theft of a watch is also involved, according to the police. One watch was recovered Saturday evening and "Red" Sumpter reported to the police that his watch had been taken by Sexton in Indianapolis Saturday night.

The check issued by Sexton on the Greeks was drawn on the Rush County National bank and the Wilkinson check issued by Reed was on the Peoples National bank.

HOPE FOR WOMANS
VOTES BILL FADES

Chairman of House Committee Having Measure Says it Will Likely
Not be Reported

FAITH PINNED ON SENATE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—Hope of Indiana suffragists to obtain the vote through the present legislature faded today when Dick M. Vesey, Fort Wayne, chairman of the house judiciary B committee to which the Alldredge suffrage bill was referred announced, that the bill would probably die in the committee.

Vesey stated that no report would be made on the measure unless it is demanded by the house. A majority and minority report will be made then, the majority against and the minority report for the bill.

A similar bill is under consideration by a senate committee and suffragists are now placing their hopes on the upper house.

SOME WEDDINGS
ARE A SACRILEGE

Dr. J. A. McCuaig, in Final Address,
Pleads More Consideration be Given Fitness for Marriage

CHRISTIAN CHURCH PACKED

New York Lecturer Closes Week's Work Here With Five Addresses on Sunday

Dr. J. Aspinall McCuaig of New York, who has been attracting large audiences afternoon and evening of the past week by his lectures on Eugenics and kindred subjects, brought to a close his work in Rushville yesterday.

At 6:00 p. m. in the First Presbyterian church he addressed a mass meeting of young people on the subject of "Ever Learning," emphasizing the tendency of all classes of people to learn and learn and learn; but never come to a knowledge of the truth.

At St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church at 7:00 o'clock Dr. McCuaig spoke to a large congregation on "How to Love." In the morning he also preached the sermon. He spoke to the Century Class at the Christian Sunday school.

The final meeting of the day was held in the Main Street Christian church at 8:30 o'clock. The church was crowded with people who came to bid farewell to Dr. McCuaig. At the close of the service he was the center of an informal reception. At the conclusion of the address Dr. Miller sang a beautiful tenor solo which, added to Dr. McCuaig's plea for a God-formed marriage, impressed the audience deeply.

Dr. McCuaig's final address to a Rushville audience was on the topic, "Mistakes About Marriage." In his talk, he said:

"The great ambition of thousands of young women in every community today is to find a husband and often to this end every deception of act and figure and even character, is practiced with impunity. Flippant speech and artificiality are not infrequently substituted for sincerity, with the result that bitter disappointment often follows marriage."

He made a strong plea that men and women consider more seriously their fitness for marriage and prepare for the solemn tie that will bind them through life.

Dr. McCuaig declared that there is a physical, mental and spiritual affinity, which is divine, and which constitutes the true marriage.

He did not hold guiltless either the mothers who are so anxious to secure for their daughters husbands that they ignore conditions which have a distinct bearing on the relationship, or the church, which so glorifies the ceremony that the paths which lead to it are often ignored.

Doctor McCuaig asserted that some marriages are the most audacious sacrilege, and he suggested that saner education is needed rather than more stringent laws. Under present conditions untaught boys and girls stumble upon marriages and make the most appalling mistakes.

The idea of one man for one woman and vice versa was strongly advanced by Doctor McCuaig as the correct one. He admitted that the Old Testament record of many wives for men was an impediment, in the thought of some persons, but declared that a comprehensive study of the Scripture would reveal the fact that there was in each such case one woman, and one woman only, who was in a true sense the answer to, and the completion of the man. He cited as an example of this the case of Jacob and Rachel and Isaac and Rebecca.

He urged that the high and beneficent purpose of marriage be taught to the young so that it may be entered into with reverence and discretion.

TO TAKE FINAL
ACTION MONDAY

County Fair Board Will Decide on Course and Submit Action to Stockholders for Approval

INDEBTEDNESS ABOUT $5,600

Some Members of Board Favor Selling
Everything Separately—
Little Favorable Sentiment

The directors of the Rush County Fair association will meet next Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the assembly room of the court house for the purpose of taking final action on the disposition of the fair grounds. Since the county council refused to appropriate $1,500 for the use of the fair, the board of directors are determined to sell the grounds and close up the business of the fair.

The board will take official action next Monday and then a meeting of the stockholders will be held and the matter put up to them for final action. There seems to be very little sentiment in favor of a fair. The present board of directors has declared it would not put the fair any deeper in debt and since the appropriation was not made the board believes it cannot operate only at a loss. The present indebtedness of the fair is about $5,600.

There is some question as to how the grounds will be sold. Some of the board members favor selling everything separately. For instance all of the timber would be sold to the highest bidder, then the buildings and then the grounds. The fair grounds consist of about 27 acres. The buildings would be of little use to anyone wanting the grounds for farming purposes, except the barns, and there is only one good barn.

The debt of the fair was $3,500 when the present board came into control. This debt has been increased, not because of mismanagement but because of circumstances and the members are determined to sell the grounds rather than increase the indebtedness. Last year the fair tried to back the Connersville fair and as a result lost money. Other losses were occasioned because of the weather. The year before the fair was held on Saturday and proved a great money loser.

The directors are determined to give up the fair and will probably vote accordingly. It will then be up to the stockholders. There were few expressions of sympathy Saturday following the refusal of the council to appropriate money and it is believed a rest of a few years may prove a good thing.

PARK FACTORY RUNS AGAIN

Innis-Pearce Plant Will Resume Operations Once More Tomorrow

The Park Furniture company resumed work today and the Innis-Pearce company will resume operations tomorrow after having been closed down for several days on account of a shortage of coal. It was stated at the Park that plenty of coal had been received to cause the belief that there was no danger of another shut-down very soon. Neither plant was able to get coal.

FIRE LOSS $500,000

Boston, Mass., Jan. 29.—Fire which broke out in the center of the wholesale district early today caused a loss of $500,000. The building occupied by the Thomas Kelly company, largest woolen blanket dealers in New England, was destroyed.

A number of claims have been filed against the estate of Theodore E. Gregg. The Knecht Clothing company has a claim for $15,500; O. C. Norris two claims, one for $70.50 and the other for $98 and Sue M. Gregg, one for $67.78.

LOT SALE SCHEME IS ADVANCED AGAIN

This Method For Putting Across
Concern Which Wants to Locate
Here Will be Considered

MEETING TO BE HELD SOON

A factory proposition that looks good to those men who have been boosting for a new manufacturing institution here has been located and a representative will be in Rushville within a few days, it was announced today. At that time those who have promised the boosters they will do their share and others who are vitally interested will be present.

Since it will take money to float the concern that is considering locating here, the lot sale scheme has again been put forward as the means of raising the necessary money. The plan, as advanced once before, is simply this: that owners of vacant lots in Rushville shall give their lots in return for stock in the new concern and the lots shall then be sold and the money thus realized to pay for the stock which the owners of the lots are given.

That matters are now taking such a course that something definite will happen within a few days is apparent. The lot sale method will be considered at the forthcoming meeting.

ENDORSES WRIGHT
STATE-WIDE BILL

Mass Meeting at Christian Church
Adopts Resolution Urging Support of Prohibition Measure

MESSAGE TO DOBYNS TODAY

A telegram was sent to Senator Lem P. Dobyms of Greensburg today urging him to vote for the Wright state-wide prohibition bill which was handed down for the first reading in the senate today. The bill passed the house last Thursday, 70 to 28. The telegram told the senator representing Rush, Hancock and Decatur counties of the endorsement of the state-wide measure at a mass meeting of more than one thousand persons of Rushville and vicinity last night.

When the church congregations had gathered at the Main Street Christian church last night at 8:30 to hear Dr. J. A. McCuaig, the Rev. C. M. Yocum explained that Rush county was regarded throughout the state as being a laggard with respect to the temperance sentiment that is sweeping the state. Only two petitions, containing 168 signatures, have been sent from this county.

Dr. C. H. Parsons then read a resolution endorsing the Wright bill and the meeting made it unanimous by all standing to show their approval of the endorsement. After the vote was taken, Dr. Parsons read the telegram which was this morning sent to Senator Dobyms. It was also urged that individual messages be sent.

FACE BUSY WEEK
IN LEGISLATURE

Legislators, With Time One-Third
Gone, Have Many Important
Measures to Consider

LOWER BRANCH IN THE LEAD

Prohibition, Convention and Suffrage
Bills Will Come Before the Senate This Week

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—The Indiana legislature started on its fourth—and what will probably be the most important week of its sixty day session when both houses met at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Important developments are expected on the prohibition, constitutional convention and suffrage bills and also some of Gov. Goodrich's most important measures during the next six days. The prohibition bill which was passed by the house, was scheduled to be handed down in the senate today by Lieut. Gov. Bush. It will go to the committee on public rights and franchises, which already has a similar bill under consideration and will undoubtedly receive favorable action.

The constitutional convention bill, which has also passed the house, will come up for early action in the senate. The woman suffrage bill in the senate, will probably be acted on before the similar measure before the house. Advocates of woman suffrage are waiting until the senate disposes of the constitutional convention bill, before pushing their measure strongly.

The house will take up the main administration bills immediately. It has cleared its decks of the prohibition and constitutional bills—two of the most important.

Although few bills have been acted on considering the fact that one-third of the period of the session is now passed, all of the preliminary work is out of the way and leaders are expecting to get some fast work out of the legislators from now on. The house will hold sessions on Saturday in the future, Speaker Eschbach announced, and told the members to make their plans accordingly.

The following bills were scheduled to be handed down for third reading and final action in the house of representatives this afternoon.

Durham's bill providing that any individual or corporation in the banking business may be a public depository, upon giving bonds signed by at least eleven freeholders.

Jinnett's bill reducing the salary of the quarter master general from $1,800 to $1,000 a year.

Southard's measure amending civil proceedings law in regard to change of venue in civil cases. The bill would make it more difficult to procure a change of venue in such cases.

Dilworth's bill raising the qualifications for officers of the Indiana National Guard.

Kimmel's bill providing that city court warrants may be served by policemen and constables deputized by city judges.

Walker's bill directing the attorney general to conduct an investigation of charges of discrimination against Indiana oil companies by out-of-state oil concerns. Walker declares that Indiana oil companies are being ruined by this discrimination.

Houghton's bill to permit incorporated towns to assume the indebtedness of school towns.

The following bills will come up in the senate for third reading and final vote.

Kinder's bill to provide for temporary loans by school boards. School taxes are not paid to the boards until six months after they are collected and schools are often pressed for funds.

Beardsley's bill providing for the return to counties of all money col-

Army and Navy Department Plans to Place Instructors in American Colleges

CONFERENCE TO BE HELD

Expected That Action Will Furnish 3,000 Medical Graduates for Service

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 29.—Following the general program of "preparedness," instructors in military sanitation and medicine furnished by the War and Navy Departments probably will be placed in 95 of the foremost medical colleges of the United States, February 1.

This action is intended to equip our institutions of medicine and surgery with a course of training that will fit the future medical profession of the country to promote betterment of health in times of peace, and to prepare it for its duty in any untoward crisis.

It followed a conference in Washington January 6 in which deans of Medical schools in all sections of the country, members of the Advisory Commission of the Council of National Defense, members of the Committee of American Physicians, and high officers of the Army and Navy participated.

The invitations to the conference were extended by Secretary of War Baker following the suggestion of the Council of National Defense which had the hearty endorsement of the Committee of American Physicians. The latter organization is strong in advocacy of medical preparedness and desired to co-operate with the government to prepare the profession for their patriotic duty in times of stress.

It is the idea of the Council to furnish the graduating classes of medical schools with a rudimentary military training and it is estimated that this action will furnish 3,000 young medical men fairly well equipped for the medical military service on June 1, the date of their graduation this year. The Secretaries of War and Navy will supply the necessary instructors.

This move in medical preparedness has the unique distinction of claiming the support of both militarists and pacifists in that the physician and surgeon is engaged in the humane efforts of life saving throughout the horrible destructions of war.

Such a course of training is not contemplated with the sole thought of war, but also that future members of the profession may be prepared to face the problems arising from national calamity and catastrophe in times of peace.

WINTER SPORTS CARNIVAL OPENS

IS SECOND ANNUAL AFFAIR

Louis J. Hill Backs Event, Furnishing 2,500 Warm Wollens For Children.

(By United Press.)

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 29.—Robed in multi-colored costumes that breathed the spirit of the Northlands, thousands of men and women, boys and girls Saturday frolicked in St. Paul's snow banks, and disported in sub zero air. It is the second annual St. Paul Outdoor Winter Sports carnival, and will last until Feb. 3.

The city was given over entirely to gaiety today. Parades, marching clubs demonstrations, and all activities of the monster celebration were held indoors. The affair this year grew near national. Its boosters plan that it will surpass the New Orleans Mardi Gras, the St. Louis Veiled Prophet unveiling, and the Seattle rose week celebrations.

Louis W. Hill, son of the late James J. Hill, Empire builder, and now head of his father's interests, is back of the carnival. He costumed 2,500 in warm wollens for the event. Delegations come from Winnipeg, Chicago, Butte, Mont., and intermediate points.

Hundreds of bands played unceasingly in the low temperatures throughout the city. Strong men from the South St. Paul Stock yards formed a fearless "Hook 'em Cow," marching club, which made merry by permissively grabbing any one not smiling, and bounding them in a blanket.

Dr. C. L. Smullen has filed a claim against the estate of B. J. Jackson for $59.25.

Protracted meetings will begin in the Gowy Methodist church this evening, with the pastor, the Rev. C. E. Hester, as evangelist.

"TOM BROWN" IS AT LARGE AGAIN

Thomas Mott Osborne Completes "Term" at Naval Prison Where He Investigated.

GOT INSIDE INFORMATION

With Him Were Three Others and They Were all Treated Exactly Like Prisoners.

(By United Press.)

Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 29.—"Tom Brown," who has served terms in Auburn, Sing Sing, Dannemora and had long experience in jails stepped out of Uncle Sam's naval prison here Saturday, a free man. Whether he will go back into jail again soon depends upon his own free will.

For "Tom Brown," be it known, is Thomas Mott Osborne, prison reformer, former warden of New York's famous penal institution at Sing Sing. He completed today a ten day "term" in the naval prison at the request of Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who wanted a complete report on conditions in the prison and the feeling of the inmates—all of them enlisted sailors. With "Brown" for the past ten days as convicts have been Prof. John McCormick, professor of political science at Bowdoin University, and Harry Bodansky, Osborne's secretary.

The three were treated exactly like other convicts in the prison. They wore the same clothes, ate the same food, did the same hard labor on the Portsmouth rock-piles and no hint was given the convicts but that the trio were real "bad men" serving time like the rest of them.

This is Osborne's third voluntary "term" in a prison to obtain first-hand information as to conditions. His first "sentence" was at Auburn several years ago.

Charles Vohland has accepted a position with the Knecht and Gartin company as book-keeper.

Marriage licenses were issued last Saturday to Milton Goens and Lulu Bruce; Harry D. Clark and Charlotte Vandiver.

REFLECTS CHANGED GERMAN SENTIMENT

Speech by Court Preacher in Striking Contrast to One Pleading for Peace Year Ago

SAYS GOD IS ON THEIR SIDE

By CARL W. ACKERMAN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Berlin, Jan. 29.—Where one year ago Dr. Dryander, court preacher, pleaded for an hour for peace in the services marking the kaiser's birthday, this year his sermon was a fiery defense of Germany's cause and a militant plea for Germany to steel herself for the decisive battles everyone believes is coming.
In this changed spirit he reflected the sentiment of the German people. His sermon evoked approval everywhere.
"We know," he said "that before us are the decisive battles which can be fought only with the greatest sacrifices. But in all cases of the past God has helped and God will fight for us today through our leaders and our soldiers. We neither will nor want this war—neither the kaiser nor the people. We hoped for peace and the kaiser extended his peace proposal, but with unheard of frivolity and insult our enemies slapped the back of the kaiser's extended hand of peace.
"To such enemies there is only one voice—that of cannons. We continue the war with a clear conscience and with trust in God that he will bring us victory. God can not—he will not permit the German people to go down."

HOOSIER PESTS

BY R. E. SNODGRASS.
Assistant state entomologist.
(Written for United Press.)
"Goodness gracious, there's a fly at this time of the year! Doesn't it beat all how they hang on!" Yes, it certainly does. We used to read that a fly lived only a week or so at the most, but recently the birth records have been kept of some of the oldest known individuals and one lived to the ripe old age of three months and one day. But he was kept under conditions very favorable to the longevity of a fly—plenty to eat and a cool temperature. Insects seem born with just so much energy to use up. The faster they live, the sooner they die.
The warmth of summer keeps them active and then they soon exhaust themselves with family cares, carousings about the sugar bowl and molasses pitcher. But in winter their ardor is cooled and their activities lessened, so consequently they live quieter and much longer lives at this season, if not exposed to freezing.
Those now in houses were born sometime in the autumn and will die of senility, if nothing else, before spring—which is encouraging.
All of next year's flies are at the bottom of the manure piles, shut up in, small, dark brown capsules. The first ones will emerge during the earliest warm days, perhaps even before the end of winter and these will mingle with the patriarchs of the winter. So, while swatting the first fly of the season is an endeavor to be commended, it would be difficult to establish any fly's identity as such. Therefore, have no mercy; swat all comers. Cut them down in the fullness of youth and the infirmity of age.

DRIVE AWAY HEADACHE

Rub Musterole on Forehead and Temples

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can affect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

Prosperity vs. High Prices.

"No such thing exists in America as prosperity for just one class, unless it exists for all." So said a noted statesman last fall, and millions of Americans believed him, but we differ from him.

Our present so-called prosperity is a prosperity of classes.

It is most emphatically not a prosperity of the masses.

The munitions manufacturer is prosperous because Europe is clamoring for his products.

The automobile maker prospers because the craze for the buzz wagon is on the upward slant.

The farmer prospers because Europe demands his products.

How to Master the Machinery of the Body

(By N. B. COOK, M. D.)

The machinery of the body needs to be oiled, kept in good condition just as the automobile or bicycle. Why should the human neglect his own machinery more than that of his horse or his engine? Yet most people do neglect themselves. Their tongue has a dark brown color, skin sallow, breath bad, yet they fail to see that their machinery needs attention. Everybody should take a mild laxative at least once a week. A pleasant way to clear the tongue and the highly colored water noticed in the morning is to take a laxative at least once a week. A pleasant way to clear the tongue and the highly colored water noticed in the morning is to take a laxative which will cure the inactive liver and biliousness.

A pleasant vegetable pill is made up of May-apple, leaves of aloe, and jalap, made into a tiny pellet and coated with sugar. First put up by Dr. Pierce nearly 50 years ago. Druggists sell these vegetable pellets in vials—simply ask for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

If backache, scalding urine or frequent urination bother or distress you, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, gout or sciatica, if you suspect that you have kidney or bladder trouble, write Dr. Pierce, at Invalid's Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., send a sample of urine, and describe symptoms. A physician and chemist will examine it without charge and you will be under no obligation whatever. Dr. Pierce's Anuric tablets cannot fail to help you, because their action flushes the kidneys of impurities and puts strength into them.

Obtain a 50-cent box of Anuric (double strength) today from your druggist in town. From personal observation in large hospital practice, Anuric will give you speedy relief. (Adv.)

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

prosper because a war crazed Europe need their wares with such to prolong the struggle.

And there the real prosperity ends. The millions of salaried men and women and the more modest wage earners are immeasurably worse off than they were five years ago. Thousands of printers and publishers are facing actual ruin. The small merchant has difficulty in making both ends meet. Thousands of professional men are wondering how they can pay their rent.

High prices are the result of this half prosperity, but all people have them to pay. The Classes have the money with which to pay, but the masses are wondering where in blazes it is coming from.

Putting it Over.

A certain country town once possessed an influential citizen who opposed every worthy movement not fathered by himself. He was a chronic kicker and the despair of the town, for in one way or another he invariably carried his point.

One day a small band of "live wires" devised a new way to get an improvement through. They secretly arranged for it to be introduced at the meeting of the village board, with the public invited to express their views.

The "live ones" were present, and so was the kicker. But contrary to his expectations the "wires" vociferously opposed the measure. This was too much for the kicker, and he immediately launched into a strenuous advocacy of the measure which he had previously intended to "kill." It carried with a whoop. We might take a lesson and "put one over" in Rushville.

Life may not be all roses on the farm, but there is a heap of satisfaction in knowing that every time a hen cackles you can hear the money jingling in your pockets.

Happy thought! Let's form a league to keep the boys in the trenches until Christmas. Then perhaps they will hop out.

The fire eater who habitually carries a chip on his shoulder often finds that he is too insignificant for a real man even to notice.

The optimist sees one side and the pessimist the other, but the rest of the world just wades right in and helps itself.

When the burden of your troubles is too heavy to carry, wriggle from under.

MUST WAIT ANOTHER YEAR

Spanish War Widows to Get No Pensions Now.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 29—Widows and minor children of officers and enlisted men who have served in the War with Spain who have been hoping to be granted pensions this congress probably will be disappointed. These hoping for governmental relief and recognition must wait another year.

Swamped with appropriation bills and an administration railroad program which must be considered before March 4, Representative Johnson of Maine today admitted he had little hope that congress would take up his pensions bill before adjournment.

RED CROSS WILL CONDUCT CLASSES

Another Training Camp to be Opened at Chevy Chase This Coming Spring.

1,500 MAKE APPLICATION

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 29.—Joy reigns in many a debutante heart here. A second season of the National Service School, where ambitious girl rookies are initiated into the mysteries of soldiering, has been announced.

They'll drill and march, and wig-wag at signals, and shoot, and the smell of powder—no sir, not talcum—will pervade the air about the Chevy Chase suburbs of the capital again next Spring. The encampment will begin April 16 under the auspices of the woman's section of the Navy League.

The school will be in session six weeks—the course to consist of 20 days. Senator Newlands estate last year's site, will probably again be used.

More than 1500 applications for instruction are already on file. The Red Cross, as was the case last year, will conduct the classes.

WHY THAT LAME BACK?

That morning lameness—those sharp pains when bending or lifting, make work a burden and rest impossible. Don't be handicapped by a bad back—look to your kidneys. You will make no mistake by following this Rushville resident's example.

Samuel A. Brown, 206 Pearl St., Rushville, says: "I had a severe attack of backache and it became worse every day. Finally, the trouble was so bad that I could hardly raise my foot above the ground. When I stopped I thought my back would break. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and was very much surprised at the prompt way in which they stopped the trouble. In a few days, I was free from pain."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Brown had. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Adv.)

SOLDIERS DON'T TALK OF VALOR

Their Idea of Hero is Not One Who is One Merely For the Newspapers.

EVERYTHING DONE FOR UNIT

Carries Out Theory That the English Are Enormously Reserved People.

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

With the British Armies in the Field, Jan. 4—(By Mail)—The world knows the English as a race of enormously reserved people. Just how reserved they really are one must live out here to realize. The most thrilling engagement of the war does not loosen the Englishman's tongue any more than his afternoon tea, if as much.

I have been trying to get the story of some British heroes. It can't be done. They say they do belong to the unit they happen to be in. The unit says the glory belongs to the next higher unit and so on until one is told that the honor belongs to the whole British army.

The theory is that it is very unfair for an individual to be signaled as a hero. They say it is not treating the other fellow right for one to be press-agented and heralded all over the world as the doer of a great deed because every day there are hundreds upon hundreds of men who are risking their lives in the deadliest of dangerous undertakings and are never even heard of. Luck, one is told, makes more heroes than anything else—luck which provides the opportunity and luck which lets one be seen while grasping it.

The French look at it much the same way but if anything the British carry the idea further. A French aviator is called an "ace" when he brings down his fifth enemy aeroplane and gets his name in the papers. There are many English airmen who are aces yet whose names have never appeared outside the official secret communiques circulated among the higher staff officer only.

Here is a concrete example: A certain lieutenant of the Royal Flying Corps was mentioned in one of these communiques. It seems he had engaged an enemy aeroplane, fought

HOOSIER BRIEFS.

Vincennes—Declaring that his wife threatened to "cut out his heart" William Koehler filed suit for divorce.

Washington—Davies county farmers were urged to raise tomatoes at a meeting today under the supervision of a packing company of Terre Haute.

Evansville—Walter Dravis was driving his coal wagon in a circle when he was arrested on the charge of intoxication.

Kokomo—Edward Rowson has filed suit against his son, Norman, to have a contract which father and son entered into. The son agreed to work in his father's drug store until August, 1917 but has failed to live up to his agreement, according to the complaint.

Markle—The farmers institute, conducted by farmers of this vicinity during the last two days, closed today.

Indianapolis—Cole Walton, was found dead shortly after a bill collector called to see him. The landlady said she heard Walton fall shortly after the collector left. Heart failure caused his death.

a duel with it among the clouds, and downed it fairly and squarely. Hoping to make an exception of this case permission was sought to use the aviator's name. It was courteously, but firmly, refused. What he had done was not to his own personal glory but to the glory of the R. F. C. And when the Royal Flying Corps is asked about it, it insists the honor is the Army's.

So it goes. The Canadians pool their glory with the South Africans and the Anzacs and the Irish and the Scotch and all the rest, and altogether they heap it into the lap of Britannia. It is trite to say it is a war of anonymous heroes but that is just what it is and the British are so very, very anonymous about it that they run the risk of having the world say they can't be doing very much. Nor do the care, apparently. Their idea is that a hero who is a hero because he has an audience is not a real hero. The real thing does a brave act because he can't help doing it, and when it is done his own satisfaction over having done his bit as best he could, without shirking, is the best reward he can have.

FANS DESIRE TO SEE LONG BOUTS

Clamor For Fight Between Dillon and Miske Over Twenty Round Course.

WOULD SETTLE ALL ARGUMENT

Two Previous Meetings Have Resulted in Draws, With Miske Favored

BY H. C. HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Jan. 29.—The two bouts staged recently in New York between Billy Miske, the tight heavy-weight demon of St. Paul, and Jack Dillon, the Indianapolis wiz, have accomplished at least one thing. They have proved beyond a question that the fans never will be satisfied as to who is really the better man until the two have had a chance to mill it out in a long bout with a referee's decision tacked onto the last round.

Each bout between the two in New York has resulted in an overwhelming opinion among New York newspapers in favor of Miske. Each time, however, there have been enough dissenting voices to make it quite apparent that enough of a shade was not earned to warrant a decision. In the first bout, two papers awarded a decision to Dillon, while two others called the bout a draw.

Such slamming and banging as has been indulged in by these boys certainly calls for a better opportunity than has been afforded in New York with a referee who refused to recognize that Queensberry rules call for a man to fight with one arm free. They deserve a bout somewhere where the proceeds will be enough to compensate them for the splendid exhibitions they give. Also, they deserve the decision that would be given.

New York promoters undoubtedly will be after a return match between the boys. The fans like that kind of milling and they'd be the greatest attraction possible, with the exception of Les Darcy, in their division. It is not improbable that Darcy will be matched with one or the other.

Indianapolis—Gale Smiley took a cold plunge in a canal when he missed the bridge while on his way home after a "night out."

HOOSIER PEST

By R. E. Snodgrass.
(Written for United Press.)

One drop of water out of a bucket might never be noticed but a few million might empty it. One San Jose scale on an apple tree could not suck out enough sap to make any difference but millions of them can suck its life away. The San Jose scale is the worst sucker there is, but it is no fool for all of that.

In the spring each female gives birth to several hundred young. The young ones plant their beaks in the bark, shed their six legs, secrete a waxy covering over their backs and settle down to business. Three or four generations of the pest are produced during the summer, so that each infested tree stands little chance of healthy growth or of producing a crop of salable fruit.

Fortunately there is a sure remedy for this pest. Lime-sulphur may be purchased by the gallon or barrel, diluted in six parts of water and sprayed on the trees during a warm, dry spell in winter or early spring before the buds begin to open. Otherwise it may injure the leaves.

Oil preparations are also used with success. They have the advantage of spreading better and being easier to use.

One point to be remembered in spraying is that every bit of surface must be covered, for there may be enough scales on some neglected spot to repopulate the entire tree in the spring. Whether or not spraying is effective, depends upon the man who does the job.

all be inspired so that the future will find us with just as beautiful and commodious churches."

"I once had an aunt," said the Rev. J. T. Aikin of the United Presbyterian, "and her only failing was that she thought God was a United Presbyterian. I shared that belief with her for a time but have come to see it differently now. I rejoice with the Rev. Huntington and the church and I believe God commends this people for such sacrifices. I think this is a beautiful church. It is most inviting and particularly well adapted for the uses to which it is to be put.

"The house of God, by its presence, through its costliness and its beauty, ought to show that religion is the most important thing in the city. I think this beautiful building should leave that impression."

The Rev. C. M. Yocum of the Main Street Christian church was introduced by the Rev. Mr. Huntington as the oldest, youngest and smallest minister in the city. The Rev. Mr. Yocum said that it was often the privilege of a speaker in the position he was to say "last but not least," but that it was not his privilege.

He told the story of the man who took the position as brakeman on a passenger train in an emergency and was instructed to call the name of the next station at his end of the car after the conductor called it. He succeeded at first but when the train reached a central point and the conductor called out a long string of cities for which passengers could change cars, the fellow was stumped—but not for long.

"Same at this end," he shouted, and the minister said that expressed his sentiments exactly in regard to what the other ministers had said, because he was in hearty accord with what they had said.

"I am not surprised that the Baptists found water under this church," the Rev. Mr. Yocum said, "because I assure you, Brother Whitsitt, that you will find water if you go deep enough into the earth or the Bible either."

"I congratulate the church on the possession of a pastor through whose zeal, enthusiasm and energy this house of worship was made possible. There is such a vast difference in the work that can be done in this church and the old one that it is beyond comparison. I congratulate you for that for which the church stands. There is no institution in the world that is a greater power for good than the church of the living God."

REVIVAL ANNOUNCED

The Rev. S. G. Huntington announced that a series of protracted meetings would be started at the First Baptist church next Sunday night and that he would be assisted by the Rev. C. B. Jones of Greensburg.

APPROPRIATES SUM OF $13,555

County Council Makes Possible Payment of Claims for Much Work Already Completed

THE MONEY REVERTED BACK

The county council appropriated a total of $13,555 Saturday before adjourning. This sum is largely for work already completed and covered by an appropriation last year, but which was not completed in time. At the end of the year all such money thus appropriated reverts back to the county.

In the list of appropriation is the sum of $3,000 for the repair of the Isaac Webb bridge. This is the bridge over Flatrock commonly known as Webb's ford. The bridge is in bad condition and is said to be dangerous.

The appropriations follow: expense of clerk's office, $750; expense of court house, $1,500; congressional interest, $1,125; Blue river bridge, Rush-Huncock county line, $4,700; Ora Logan bridge, $770; Rush-Henry county line bridge, $1,150; Rigsbee bridge, $560; Isaac Webb bridge, $3,000.

MARY ANN ALGER EXPIRES SUNDAY

Widow of Cyrus Alger Dies of Senility and Blood Poisoning at Her Home Here

FUNERAL TUESDAY AT 2 P. M.

Mrs. Mary Ann Alger, 90 years old, widow of the late Cyrus Alger, died Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock at her home, 4003 North Morgan street following an illness of several weeks from senility and blood poisoning. Mrs. Alger was a native of Pennsylvania. When two years old her parents moved to Ohio and then to Indiana. They located near Glenwood and Mrs. Alger had been a resident of this city and county since she was eight years old. She was a member of the Methodist church.

She is survived by two children, Mrs. L. H. Doughty and Charles Alger. The funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the late residence by the Rev. W. M. Whitsitt and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

The women's clubs in this city, members of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, have received the state president's annual letter of greeting. The letter encourages that the women give every possible assistance in helping to build up their cities. The club women of Rushville have helped much in the public activities here and will continue through the co-operation of the state organization and the local organizations in making possible better things for the citizens of Rushville.

The message in part says: "In entering upon my second term of office, I am filled with high optimism for the Federation. I have a vision of the wonderful growth and progress that will come from our unity—for we are as one in striving for the things that are most important—working for better conditions for humanity, for the betterment of our towns, our state, our nation.

There are fifty State Federations belonging to the General Federation. Indiana ranks eighth in number of club members. This is a fine showing. We are proud of our state.

"Let us look forward to another year of fruitful endeavor. 'Titch your wagon to a star,' and do not fear to broaden out whenever possible. Have a sympathetic outlook, and let your activities be broad and democratic."

Among the things which the club women will strive for this year and in which the local women will join, will be the securing of police-women and branches of the National Red Cross in every city.

Special stress is laid in the letter on baby week which will be observed by the club the week of May 1st to 6th. The child Bureau will co-operate with the clubs in making this a success as well as health officials. No united feature of the clubs is more interesting than this week, during which prizes are given to the most perfect babies.

RIOTS CONTINUE AT BRIDGE TODAY

Mexican Newspapers in El Paso Say it is Due to Triumph in Causing U. S. Withdrawal

WAS FORCED BY CARRANZA

(By United Press.) El Paso, Texas, Jan. 29.—Serious rioting by Mexicans at the Juarez end of the international bridge was resumed today. A crowd of 500 men and women incensed at not being allowed to cross the bridge until bathed began throwing stones at American soldiers. Two of the guards were injured. As the mob advanced across the bridge a company of soldiers charged them with clubbed rifles, driving them back.

About 8 o'clock Mexican cavalry with whips charged the mob and drove all off the bridge but was unable to disperse the crowd. Mexican newspapers printed here declared that the rioting was the outgrowth of triumph over General Pershing's withdrawal from Mexico which the newspapers declared was forced by the Carranzista government.

SAYS PERSHING IS COMING

(By United Press.) San Antonio, Jan. 29.—"General Pershing is on his way out of Mexico." Thus did General Funston today make first official announcement at headquarters of the withdrawal of the American punitive expedition.

Available Records Show England's Overseas Contingents Are More Than Loyal.

More Great Things Expected in Spring Drive But They Can't be Overshadowed.

BY W. S. FORREST.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Jan. 27—(By Mail)—

Everlasting pages have been added to British Colonial history in the Battle of the Somme.

Available records of this great struggle show that every one of Britain's overseas contingents has chosen some particular elevation, valley, village or wood whose name will live like America's Bunker Hill.

The Canadians carved their niche of fame at Courcellette. It was the French Canadians here who brilliantly carried out their part of the General Staff's set program and then pressed on, storming the fortress village, filled to the brim with Germans. Competent military authorities say it was simply Canadian valor and impetuosity that put Courcellette behind the Allied lines within an hour, whereas it had been expected to hold out a week. Historical versions of the Battle of the Somme can never be written without the story of the Canadians' dash through and over the complicated defences the Germans had built at Courcellette. The taking of Regina trench, named in honor of Regina, Saskatchewan, is another feat and name that will find print in every record of Canadian fighting. The Canadians at Ypres is another chapter which has nothing to do with the Somme.

The troops of diminutive New Foundland have selected a November day for annual national observance. The scene of New Foundland's triumph in the Somme struggle will probably be named before many months. Hieroglyphical military maps describe the scene as "F39c2.5 to 40A132." That's all the location it has so far but what happened in that trench filled with New Foundland's enemies is what New Foundland has to be thankful for. The thinned New Foundland bayonets that reduced it to a ditch of dead fought counter-attacks to a standstill while a German artillery barrage smothered life on the ground between them and their original line. Troops working on the right in conjunction with the men from New Foundland were unable to carry their part of the trench. The victorious North American Islanders therefore fought their way into every corner of the stronghold and cleared it. They held the trench and have got it yet.

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freeze-one applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freeze-one, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Clip this out and pin on your wife's dresser.

"Put One Over"

We have been lucky enough to be furnished with quite a number of Maxwell automobiles by way of the company cancelling a neighbor dealer's contract at the time when there were three carloads of cars shipped to him from the factory. We were offered these cars and, of course, took them.

At the same time we were offered the opportunity of increasing our contract with the company, thereby increasing our schedule of cars per month.

With these two explanations, we are now ready to tell you that we have in stock and between here and Detroit thirty-nine (39) Maxwell Automobiles and all of them purchased at the old price.

The factory has increased the price $40 per car. We intend to sell these 39 cars at the old price.

Touring Car	$610.00
Roadster	$595.00

We have 13 of these cars sold that have not been delivered. This leaves us 26 cars to sell you at the old price. There is only one way you can get one—give us your order with a deposit on it. We will keep the car for you until you are ready. Those who want to take advantage of this $40 saving can get in if they do so before these cars are all taken.

Remember, only 26 cars, and by the way, these are all splinter new ones just received—some of them, as before stated, not yet here.

The Anker Holth Cream Separator

is the only Self Balancing Separator on the market. And the bowl is guaranteed to stay in balance the life of the machine. The Anker Holth skims the cleanest and is the easiest to keep clean and can be washed in one half the time you can wash any other separator. Every user of an Anker Holth remarks—HOW EASY it turns. This fact is especially noticeable to those who have operated other separators. A child can operate an Anker Holth with ease. The self oiling system—has no oil holes no feed cups—it simply runs in a bath of oil, and every two or three months change the oil by removing a set screw.

The Anker Holth contains fewer mechanical parts than any other separator made. And the bowl being self draining makes it non freezing in cold weather. There is no number on the disk and they are all interchangeable—they do not have to be kept on a stringer to wash them.

Nothing but the highest grade of steel and the best phosphar bronze and the most durable tinware goes into the construction of the Anker Holth.

The Anker Holth Cream Separator is the best Separator on the market today for Efficiency, Simplicity, Sanitation, Satisfaction and Durability. Call, let us show you the separator and get our prices

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back-ache or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in uric acid so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

MRS. SANGER IS AGAIN IN COURT

Tried Today on Charges Growing Out of Maintenance of Birth Control Clinic.

SISTER OF ETHEL BYRNE

Defense to Secure Testimony of Physicians as to Death Rate Among Children.

(By United Press.)

New York, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Margaret Sanger, New York's fighting, judge-defying birth control advocate, and her associate, Miss Fanny Mindell, will be tried today in special sessions on charges growing out of the maintenance of a birth control clinic by Mrs. Sanger in Brooklyn.

The defense intends making a strenuous effort to get the testimony of physicians into the case saying the death rate among children ascends astonishingly with the increase in births per family. The defense is willing to attempt to prove from voluminous statistics that deaths per 1000 births in families having less than three children is 108.5; three or four children 126; five or six children 152.8; seven or eight children 176.4; nine or more children 191.9.

As in the case of Mrs. Ethel Byrne, Mrs. Sanger's sister who was convicted and whose case is now on appeal, the defense will argue that birth control is not birth elimination but merely voluntary motherhood.

Friends of Mrs. Sanger's from all strata of society—flurred women in limousines and the very poor—plan to give her their support.

WHAT-YOU-MAY COLUMN

Horseradish.

Horseradish is a pernicious, vindictive, ill natured vegetable that has to be watched every minute. Boiled beef is its only excuse.

Little is known of horseradish except that it grows in china pots and loaf's around cheap lunch counters at midnight. Mustard, salt shakers, catsup and cab drivers are its boon companions.

The only thing to be said in favor of horseradish is that it doesn't get into plaster on people's backs and blistered them up. It will be pleased to choke you if it gets a chance, but won't go out of its way to do harm, like mustard.

Ice.

Ice is one of the cold, hard facts of life that we are forever bumping into; and one of the few things in this world that's what it's cracked up to be.

Ice is a paradox. It is used by cold storage men to make it hot for the public and it would be a cold day for them if they didn't have it.

Ice was invented by Divine Providence to keep our rivers and lakes from freezing to death. During the summer it comes in chunks and goes in a hurry. It is what housewives and saloonkeepers depend on in July and fall on in January.

Ice is found in the stare of box office clerks and on the shoulders of society leaders. Married women stand on it in their bare feet just before they go to bed. It is used by Americans to cool their cocktails and by polar bears to cool their own tails.

Ice rides around in big wagons and has a good time; and when it gets tired of life it melts and runs away.

DARCY'S STAGE VENTURE FROST

Despite Publicity he Received His Theatrical Effort Was Dismal Flivver.

SMALL CROWDS EVERYWHERE

Only Eighty People Paid Admission in Philadelphia and He Threatened to Quit.

BY H. C. HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Jan. 29.—Les Darcy, king of the Antipodean shiggers, found the American public far away from the idea of clugging up theater seats just to see him wait a few rounds with Freddie Gilmore and demonstrate the punches he used to win his way to Australian fame.

His junket through eastern cities has been one of the most dismal flivvers history ever has been called upon to chronicle.

Despite the fact that Darcy had received more publicity in a few weeks than the average scrapper gets in a lifetime the public didn't fall for his theatrical efforts. His first stop—Bridgeport, Conn.—showed the way the wind was blowing when the theater wasn't even comfortably filled.

Jumps were made to other towns and the same sort of desultory interest was shown in his appearance. When Philadelphia was reached Darcy was so discouraged with the number of persons who wanted to be his audience that he left the theater, and it was only by argument and threat that he could be induced to return and entertain the eighty or so fans.

The reason for his failure should be apparent and should be a warning to other theatrically ambitious scrappers. Folks who really are interested in ring battles don't care to see a boxer step onto a stage and merely go through the motions of a fight. They want to see him fight.

Any one so popular as Darcy would have no trouble at all in jamming a fight arena with fans to see him battle. Others who go to a theater to be entertained are rarely interested in the doings of the boxers, so they fail to become greatly excited.

Darcy was out of his sphere when he went on the stage. He will have to get the vaudeville reputation before he can hop to make sardine repositories of theaters. He is an arena filler, not a theater-packer.

The Waste Basket.

Dear Reader—There is a paper famine in this country. Your individual help is needed to stop it. If you will watch this little box every day we will try to tell you how you can do that. We used to import 50 per cent of the rags and old paper used in making news paper, wrapping paper, writing paper, cardboard, all kinds of paper. The war has stopped that supply. In consequence, paper prices have gone up, in some instances 400 per cent.

Retail stores can help by posting notices asking customers not to insist on having parcels wrapped up if they can be conveniently handled otherwise. Customers can help by acting on the suggestion.

Housewives can help by saving rags and waste paper, bundling them up and selling them to the junk man. Tomorrow we will tell you some of the kinds of rags most in demand, and why.

ANITA STEWART SAYS—

(COPYRIGHT 1916-VITAGRAPH)

Charm Best Adornment.
No, really girls, I am not very fond of jewelry of any sort. While some people wear it very well, most of us are just as attractive without it.

Let me tell you a little story which will explain what I mean:

In June I gave a housewarming at my new bungalow on Long Island. As the girls finished removing their wraps they came down stairs and I met them in the reception hall. Here we stood waiting for the stragglers before entering the living room where the men had congregated. How most of them scintillated with beautiful gems! Dinner rings, diamonds, bracelets, ropes of pearls—all had their place. I'll be perfectly honest with you; for a short time I almost wish that I had worn at least a gold band on my arm.

As this thought entered my head, I chanced to glance toward the stairs to see dear Ethel descending. She had just reached the landing and how beautiful she did look against a white background of the woodwork. She was wearing a dull blue tulle dress—made simply in a bodice effect and somewhat short. Her feet were encased in satin slippers of a color to match and perfectly plain, and her hair was dressed somewhat high up on her head without a single ornament, not even a jeweled comb.

“Oh, Ethel, how lovely you look,” came amongst a series of “Ahs,” and “Ohs.” And—although she does not belong to the “dazzling” type—the admiration was earned.

As she came up to greet me I couldn't help notice that she wore no jewelry save a wedding and an engagement ring.

Then I felt a little more satisfied. For although every one of the girls looked lovely, not one outshone Ethel as she gracefully moved about exchanging sallies with her different friends.

All eyes seemed to be attracted to her compellingly, for her very simplicity added to her natural grace and charm. Sometimes, I'll admit, a person needs the embellishment lent by glittering gems. When this is so, wear them.

There are types that appear to better advantage with jewelry than without. I believe this type to be comparatively rare, however, and am sure that most of you, like Ethel, would be far more attractive with your natural adornment.

If you live a good wholesome life let your eyes be your gems. They will sparkle sufficiently, I am sure.

Helen Clark to Be Heard In Edison Tone Test Here

Modern science has brought forth many wonders and it seems as though man, through the exercise of his intellectual powers, almost has made himself immortal. Thought was made immortal when the printing press was invented; form and motion were made undying by the creation of the motion picture, and now the actual voice has been made to live forever. At least, the last named accomplishment has been achieved according to reports that have been received from greatest musical centers of America where the discussed tone-tests, given in connection with heard of the tests given in New York, Boston, and other cities and who have heard of the tests given in New York, Boston, and other cities and who have expressed the desire that such a test be given here. Invitations have been received by many prominent musicians of the city and admission to the exclusive affair will be by ticket only. The principal artist of the occasion will be Helen Clark, one of the most popular and talented singers of the concert platform. All of the impressive features that have been incorporated into the metropolitan tests will be given here. Miss Clark will sing in unison with her voice and also will render duets in which her living voice will carry one part of a song while her re-created voice sings a second part. An unusual degree of interest is being taken in the coming musical event and those who have received invitations are anticipating an evening of the most delightful and impressive entertainment.

WEATHER FOR THE WEEK.
Washington, Jan. 29.—Rains probable Sunday and Monday, followed by much colder and generally fair weather Tuesday and Wednesday; unsettled and warmer with snow Thursday or Friday.

HELEN CLARK
a new product of the laboratory of Thomas A. Edison, have been heard. And the people of Rushville are going to be given an opportunity to judge for themselves merits of the latest achievement of Mr. Edison, for it has been announced that one of these wonderful recitals—recitals that have stirred and amazed musicians and music critics in many of the large cities of America—will be given in this city at the United Presbyterian church February 13.

The affair that has been held here was arranged to gratify the curiosity of local music lovers who have
